Union, Ore., June, 23.—(Special)—The moving pictures of the stock show will be shown for the first time at the Cozy theater, Union, June 24 and 25.

J. R. Willis has just received information from the Oregon Motion Picture Mfg. Co., of Portland, that the pictures are in every way a success. This will be a three-reel feature and in addition to the events of the stock show will include a full reel of rounding up horses and cattle on the prominent ranches in the Grande Ronde valley. After showing the pictures here, Mr. Willis will take the picture theatres and then throughout the great Northwest. He will lecture on the pictures and will also carry a number of slides showing the character of the valley that will be used between the reels.

The Relief Corps gave a social after their regular meeting today and served strawberries and cream and cake to a large and appreciative crowd. The members of the crops gave a short literary program of music and recitations. The recitations by Mrs. Vandeventer and Miss Nellie Paddock were very fine and loudly applauded. The music was excellent. Everyone went away well pleased by their entertainment. Gen. Goodbrod gave a hearty invitation for everyone to attend a picnic at Goodbrod lake on June 27th. The anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. From the encore that the general received, all will be with him at that date.

J. H. Hutchinson lost a valuable cow last week.

Johnnie Jacobs, Jr., has a new automobile now and can travel as fast as anyone.

The Knights of Pythias gave the Pythian Sisters a social time the other night after their lodge was over and all report a good time.
