A CHINESE ORATOR.

Yesterday at chautauqua the people were given a treat in the address of Ng Poon Chew, the Chinese editor of San Francisco. He spoke with a clear articulation and his address was well woven with humor. But above all he had a message to convey. It was the message from the new republic, which after years of slow moving has suddenly come to itself and is carrying out some of the ideas of that great man in his time, Confucius. From Ng Poon Chew it seems China has standpatters and progressives, but the progressives are now in the saddle and running the ship of state. His comparisons of his own country to this country were well received, and as a whole his address proved to be a splendid opening attraction for the chautauqua session.

The Chinese are very polite. A Chinese assassin who killed the wrong man by mistake has apologized to the police.

Detective arrested a New York dealer for selling over ripe cheese. There are some clues so strong that even a detective cannot miss them.

"Why not go to Europe?" asks a steamship company's advertisement. Well, for one reason, the city taxes are due.

Dr. Munyon is seeking a divorce. Evidently his old slogan, "There is Hope," has gone out of commission.

Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others, can not keep it from themselves.—J. M. Farrie.

The list silk bank has failed again. A New York woman has lost $440 which she carried in her stocking.

Gen. Rosalie Jones, the hikist is going on the lecture platform. When Bryan quit lecturing it made room on the platform for a lot of new ones.

What must you do when the girl yawns? Well, speaking from experience, that's the time for you to round into the home stretch.

Each American is said to consume 40 pounds of sugar annually. Thirty-nine pounds of it are used for deadening the taste of boarding house coffee.

Some people are broadened by travel and education, and you can also get fat by eating plenty and sitting around.

This year Nat Goodwin and De Wolf Hopper each celebrated the fifth before the Fourth.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Howard Geddes went to Baker this morning to be the guest of friends.

Mrs. L. O. Cotel of Portland, is in the city, and her many friends will find her at the home of Mrs. E. E. Slater, whom she is visiting.

Ng Poon Chew, the Chinese orator, and editor, who spoke at chautauqua Sunday afternoon, left for Portland this morning on No. 17.

Dr. C. H. Upton left on delayed No. five this morning for Portland, where he will spend several days attending the second World's Christian Citizenship Conference, and looking after business matters.

Miss Hulda Anderson left for the World's Christian Citizenship Conference in Portland, which she will attend as a delegate from the local Presbyterian church. Her cousin, Miss Neilson, who has been visiting her for the past month, accompanied her.

C. L. Smith, the O.-W. agriculturist, is at the Foley today and will be in the city all week, giving a series of lectures at the chautauqua.

Prof. M. M. McCool of Corvallis, is in the city and will be in attendance at the chautauqua during the entire session, as an O. A. C. extension representative.

Notice to Auto Owners.

All auto owners who wish to enter delivery service from the city to chautauqua grounds, should apply to transportation committee, John Collier, A. W. Nelson and Wm. Miller.

Can't Keep It Secret.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Tablets is daily becoming more widely known. No such grand remedy for stomach and liver troubles has ever been known. For sale by all dealers.

Carl E. Anderson, Tenor and Manager of the Sierra Quartet, which closes at the park this evening.

PAPER ON PARK GROUNDS.

Regular subscribers to the Observer can obtain their evening copies at the park booth and all those who are not regular subscribers will find them on sale at the same place each evening the rest of the week.

G. A. R. Gathering Grows.
Gettysburg, June 30.—With thirty thousand veterans of the Blue and Gray already on the battlefield and fifteen thousand more coming by Tuesday, the scenes of the historic battle are to be fought over again. The grizzled soldiers are here attending the Semi-Centennial celebration of the battle of Gettysburg. Special trains including the Washington delegation of boy scouts cared for their baggage. Many of the old veterans refused to ride in automobiles preferring to walk. At least twenty-two governors are expected to attend the reunion.

Young Grant Married.
San Diego, June 30.—U. S. Grant, Jr., obtained a license today to marry Mrs. America Workman Will, a widow whose engagement to the son of the famous Civil war general was announced last week. Grant gave his age as sixty and the bride's as thirty two. He said they were not to be married for a month.

Pendleton Boise Bound.
To close up the last week of the present league season of the Western Tri-State, Pendleton went to Boise today. Walla Walla wins the pennant for the first half of the year, and the four clubs will proceed on another league season commencing a week from tomorrow—unless more blow-ups occur.

Moose Lose Game.
The Moose lost to Elgin, 4 to 5, yesterday, and Enterprise won out over Wallowa in 11 innings, 3 to 4. Both games were good exhibitions. Cove defeated Union 12 to 2 yesterday.

Reply to Japan Ready.
Washington, June 30.—The American reply to the latest Japanese note regarding the California land bill is completed and will be forwarded to Tokio in a few days. Officials refuse to intimate what the answer contains.

Guaranteed Eczema Remedy.

The constant itching, burning, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itch piles and irritating skin eruptions can be readily cured and the skin made clear and smooth with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Mr. J. C. Eveland, of Bath, Ill., says: "I had eczema for twenty-five years and had tried everything. All failed. When I found Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment I found a cure." This ointment is the formula of a physician and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we can guarantee it. All druggists, or by mail. Price 50c. Pfieffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.
