

CHANGES MADE IN THE CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

Slight changes are being made in the Chautauqua program for the next three days, featuring Mrs. Ina Wright Herbst and Mr. Herbst, the German musician who, with wife are favorites in the German court music circles. The revised program for the next three days follows:

The morning services at the park were well attended. Dr. E. B. Fyke, of the Methodist Episcopal church, gave the address of the morning, his subject being Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven," which he treated in a masterful style. Special music by the Methodist chorus choir and solo numbers by Mrs. H. A. Hansen of Salt Lake, and Mrs. Pearl Hutton Schrader of Spokane were much appreciated by those in attendance.
