

SUBSCRIPTION DATES DUE

GIVERS TO CHAUTAUQUA REMIT AMOUNTS DUE.

One Hundred Have Responded to Nine Hundred Notices.

Notices of first installment dues to the Y. M. C. A. funds, have brought only meager success today. J. H. Rudd, general secretary summarized the situation today as follows:

"Nearly nine hundred statements for subscriptions due in full or in part to our Y. M. C. A. building fund on July 1st were sent out five days ago. During these intervening days over one hundred have responded. I am hoping that everyone of the remaining eight hundred will come to headquarters office on Depot street or mail in their payment at once. This is a critical period in our movement forward when every dollar counts. Promptness on the part of the subscribers will save us dollars in interest."

What will be your children's recollection of home—a house you owned or a house you rented?
