ficers of the other societies were chosen. At the conclusion service Sabbath morning there were sixty two communions and a benevolent offering of $41.65 was made. The woman's society exhibited a table of homemade articles and were sold out on July 4th. Rev. Wm. Wheeler, who helped in the meeting returned to-

 As usual the Christian Indians this year observed the fourth of July with a big dinner. There were 150 present for the spread, 20 of the number being white people. At the dinner 250 pounds of fresh salmon was served. Following the dinner many interesting talks were made by people present and the Indian talks were interpreted for the benefit of the whites.
