

UNION HEADS VISIT LOCALS

SECRETARY SYKES INSPECTS ALL LOCALS HERE.

President Swift Also Attends a Portion of the Inspections.

Secretary F. A. Sykes, of Milton, active field worker for the Farmers' union, is making a complete and exhaustive tour of inspection of the locals of Union county and a portion of the time he is accompanied by President Swift, of Baker. Last Tuesday Mr. Sykes was in La Grande and a large gathering of union members of this local heard him. A delightful dinner was served and from every phase the meeting was a splendid one.

At Union Today. Mr. Sykes is in Union today where a meeting is in progress, and E. S. Norris of this city, is one of those in attendance. Next Saturday the farmers meet at Cove and again Mr. Sykes and probably President Swift will be in attendance.

Brakeman's Assailant Captured.

Word has been received here that the hobo who stabbed Brakeman Kramer Monday night, has been captured at Castle Rock. Kramer, who was substituting on eastbound No. 12 for Jack Allison, was stabbed just over the heart and the knife pierced the left lung. The train had stopped on account of engine troubles and the brakeman had gone forward. He noticed a hobo on the tank and ordered him off. As he jumped off, the man lunged at Kramer with a knife and then made a getaway. The incident occurred between Portland and Hood River. Kramer was taken to the latter city and is said to be in a serious condition.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Fitchner Sale Pending.

The visit of Tom O'Hara, scout for the Cincinnati team, to Walla Walla has resulted in negotiations by the major league club for the purchase of Fitchner, ex-Spud speed artist, and a deal is now pending. Fitchner went to North Yakima when the La Grande team trew up.

A PROBLEM IN FINANCE.

The Question That Lincoln Fired at Secretary Chase.

The mysteries of finance were not always clear to Mr. Lincoln, whose statesmanship was of another sort. But his keen sense of humor would not permit him to regard the difficult subject as too profound for an occasional joke.

One day Secretary Chase of the treasury department found on a desk in his office what at first appeared to be a picture of an "infernal machine."

It looked like a goose, but on further examination it proved to be a drawing of an ingenious invention for turning gold eagles into greenbacks, with the secretary himself working it and slowly feeding it with "yellow boys" at one end, while the government currency came out at the other end, whirling about like the leaves of autumn.

While he was examining it the president came in, as he daily did, for consultation. Mr. Chase handed him the drawing, and his eyes twinkled as he recognized the likeness of the secretary.

"Capital joke, isn't it, Mr. Chase?" he exclaimed.

"A joke," repeated the late secretary. "I'd give a thousand dollars to know who left it here."

"Oh, no," said Mr. Lincoln temperately, "you would hardly do that."

"Yes, I would!" stoutly asserted the secretary.

"Would you, though?" inquired the president, with that deliberate manner which characterized him when he was really in earnest. "Well, which end would you pay from?"—Youth's Companion.

Still He Had It.

A certain physician told some of his patients that as long as they kept their feet and legs dry they would be safe from an attack of the grip. One day he was surprised to receive a letter from a patient in which the latter said that he had two wooden legs and yet he had had the grip for five consecutive years.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers. Adv.

Puritis a Severe Form of Eczema

A Method of Home Treatment that is Very Effective.

There is probably no other remedy so well known as S. S. S. for the blood. And for this reason it is the one remedy invariably called for in treating pruritis and other skin diseases. But there are many people who do not insist upon having S. S. S. and are easily persuaded to try something else "just as good," so they are told. If your blood is thin; if your skin is irritated with eczema, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, or any other blood humor; if you are troubled with pimples or boils, do not permit yourself to be talked into buying something else, but insist upon S. S. S. It is really a remarkable remedy. It contains one ingredient, the active purpose of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutriment. And the medical elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well-balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book on skin diseases, compiled by the medical department of the Swift Specific Co., 184 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice, to all who are struggling with a blood disease.
