

Society

After the lull of last week society circles this week suffered a violent reaction. Many out-of-town guests, among whom were Mrs. Pearl Hutton Schrader of Spokane and Mrs. Charles Clark of Portland, have been feted at numerous house parties. The Newton-Bunting nuptials of the coming week have called forth many social events and altogether the week has been a busy one for the hands of the social clock, which ticked its dull seconds during the Chautauqua hours of last week, to the empty chairs of the banquet hall.

A quiet dinner at the home of W. R. Jones on Seventh street was given in honor of Mrs. Pearl Hutton Schrader of Spokane Thursday evening. After the dinner hour, numbers of Mrs. Schrader's newly made friends came in to bid her goodbye and to express their wishes that she be with us again during chautauqua time. No person visiting the city for years has won so many friends as did Mrs. Schrader in the short time she has been here. Her wonderful voice was heard to its best advantage at the Chautauqua grounds and many came to know and love the singer through her charming personality. Mrs. Schrader left on the late train last evening for her home in Spokane and all entertainers hope of seeing her in La Grande, each year during Chautauqua season.

Last evening at the P. J. Thiesen home, 1910 First street, Miss Hazel Thiesen gave a very pretty shower to Miss Pauline Newton who is to become the bride of C. E. Bunting on July 16. Miss Thiesen was assisted during the evening by Miss Olive Masee. The Thiesen home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The living room and parlors were covered with bouquets of pink and white roses, while the dining room was a mass of red hearts. Heart games were the occupation of the evening, Miss Runa Bacon winning the prize for "getting nearest the center of the heart." A course luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the delightful evening. Miss Newton was showered with many beautiful gifts of silver and linen.

The guests present were: Miss Marjorie Silverthorn, Miss May Neill, Miss Gladys Osterling, Miss Sarah Smith, Miss Runa Bacon, Miss Zoe Bragg, Miss Mayrie Pennington, Miss Marjorie McCall, Miss Nellie Pickens, Miss Lucrece Wood, Miss Helen Currey, Miss Margaret O'Malley of Portland, a guest of Miss Thiesen and Miss Ethel Wright.

On Monday evening of this week Mrs. Chester P. Newlin at her home, 504 Main, delightfully entertained a number of friends in honor of Mrs. Charles Clark of Portland who is a guest in the city with Mrs. Newlin and other friends. The evening was spent at five hundred. A two-course luncheon was served those in attendance. Beside the host and hostess and Mrs. Clark, the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newlin, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Dunne and Mr. and Mrs. Delle Greene, Miss Irene Murphy, Miss Edna Wissler of Pendleton, Miss Ethel Reith, Miss Mayme Reith and C. O. Ramsey. Honors at cards went to Mrs. Charles Clark and Robert Newlin.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Lou Given entertained a number of young people in honor of her daughter, Miss Lois' 12th birthday anniversary. The young people were taken to the theatre in the early part of the afternoon and then returned to the Given home where they spent some time playing outdoor games after which delicious refreshments were served them. Those present were: Emma Henderson, Fredrika Schilke, Madeline Jones, Minnie Moore, Gladys Moore, Edith Darland, Julia Hopkins, Leona Harney, John Henderson, Fred Bock, Kenneth Keeney and Harry Harney.

Miss Flavia Ritter delightfully entertained the Mission Band of the Presbyterian church at her home on Sixth street Wednesday of this week.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp entertained in honor of Mrs. Pearl Hutton Schrader of Spokane, at their home on Second street. Five hundred was played during the evening, four tables of the guests playing. Mrs. August J. Stange won the honors and presented the prize to Mrs. Schrader. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served the assembled guests.

Mazamas are becoming active and during the last week of warm weather several hill climbing parties have been reported. Last Sunday a crowd climbed to the top of Mt. Emily, returning long after the sun had gone to rest. This Sunday another party of young people are planning to seek the hills for the day. Many more parties are being organized to ascend some of the difficult peaks which are so close to the city.

Mrs. Geo. T. Cochran on Wednesday evening of this week entertained a number of friends at her home, 702 Washington avenue, complimentary to Mrs. Pearl Hutton Schrader of Spokane. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white. Five hundred was played during the evening. Mrs. Donahue and Mr. Holland receiving the honors, which they graciously presented to Mrs. Schrader.

Miss Mattie Schofield entertained on Tuesday of this week a few of her friends at a slumber party in honor of her guest, Miss Hazel Richins, of Arizona. It was given at her country home on the Hot Lake road and the guests were delightfully entertained and a dainty midnight luncheon was served. After a late breakfast the next morning the guests returned to town. Those invited were Marie Love, Gladys Black, Janett Stoddard, Wilma Lewis, Leolette King and Ruth Woodruff.

Mrs. Lloyd Scriber entertained a number of friends at her home, 406 Main, this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Clark, of Portland. The party was a unique affair and the first of its kind given here this year. The spacious porch of the Scriber home was decorated in cut flowers, roses being the foundation of the decorative scheme. Mrs. Scriber was assisted during the afternoon by her sister Miss Myrie Pennington. At the close of the delightful afternoon the guests were served with a delicious and cooling two-course luncheon. Beside the guest of honor those attending were: Mrs. Herman Seigrist, Mrs. Arch Bacon, Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mrs. Sam Lamey, Mrs. Norman Desilet, Mrs. Frank Bay, Mrs. Harve Bay, Mrs. Rosco Neal, Mrs. W. Rhinehart, Mrs. Richard Duigan and Mrs. A. W. Nelson. Miss Marjorie McCall, Miss Len Jones, Miss Edna Wissler, of Pendleton and Miss Irene Murphy.

At her home near the Moss Chapel school house, Miss Blanche Clark entertained a number of young people Thursday afternoon of this week in honor of her cousin, Miss Elsa Clark who is visiting with her for the summer. The guests left La Grande and Island City in cars and motored to the Clark home. All of the skill of a true artist was displayed in the pretty decorations of the Clark home for the occasion and the unique pastimes and entertainments of the day. The dining room was daintily decorated in pink and white, the luncheon served conforming with the color scheme. A beautiful hand painted napkin ring was the prize awarded Miss Wright for being best seamstress present. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes after having spent one of the most enjoyable afternoons of the social season. Beside Miss Elsa Clark the guest of honor, Miss Clark's guests were: Miss Kiddle and Miss Letta Kiddle, Nita Hunter, Miss White Alice Hu, Helen Curry, Ethel Wright Gertrude Halley, Thelma Leffel, Inez Knowles.

The Maidkin club, composed of a number of young ladies of this city met with the Misses Ruth and May Day at their home on Pennsylvania avenue, Friday evening. The members of this club are Marie Bolton, Bernice Stanchfield, Ruth and May Day, Enid Stanchfield and Mary Smith. Last evening special guests invited were Jay Shaw, Marble Green of Wendell, Ida, Russell Hudkins of Spokane, and Cecil Bolton.

Suffragettes Harrass Commons.

London, July 11.—The house of commons was thrown into wild confusion today by a sensational suffragette demonstration, a part of which was intended to frighten the members into the belief that the members were threatened with a pistol. Solicitor General Simmons was speaking at the time. Two male suffragettes, believed to be responsible for the demonstration were arrested.

The two men were seated in the visitors gallery when suddenly one shouted: "Justice for Women," and fired what the other spectators and members believed to be a real pistol. The other man hurled suffragette literature upon the members and threw mouse traps being the figure of a cat on the top. The officials overpowered the men and when the "pistol" was seized it was found to be a child's toy. The men were identified as being H. G. Bennett and Evan Shaw.
