AGAIN HE SHOWS UNDERSIZE.

Governor West left Salem, journeyed to Portland, went to the Oregon Packing company's plant on the east side where a strike is in progress and there parleyed with agitators, did a little swearing about what he would do, and after finally working up the situation to a red hot stage returned to his office in Salem.

The city administration of Portland was not consulted, the chief of police and the sheriff of Multnomah county were not informed of the governor's expected visit. Governor West is either under size, half crazed or a genuine four-flusher. His every act seems to be staged to attract attention; every little movement with the governor has a meaning all its own, as the song goes.

But the strike at the packing company's plant continued; the situation grew more tense after the governor had done a little shouting. Then wherein did the chief executive succeed in accomplishing anything except more notoriety for West—which likely is exactly what he expected to accomplish if his inner thoughts could be read.

A Good Investment.

W. D. Magli, a well known merchant of Whitemound, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines.

DANCE PLANS GROW.

Old Park Boosting Association Stands Sponsor for Party.

Believing that good weather will prevail next Thursday evening, further arrangements for the pavilion dancing party on Thursday are under way. A number of the prime movers of the association which originally conducted park benefits of various kinds, are taking the details of arrangements on themselves and receipts above those to be spent to give the dancers a decidedly good time, will go to meet incidental expenses on the new pavilion not covered in the contract costs. This sum amounts to considerable and the only way to keep the account from running over a year, will be to stage some sort of benefit, and those who enjoy dancing will find everything has been done to make the party pleasant. A dollar admission will be charged and good music supplied.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengele, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers. Adv.

West's Remodeling Sale Exceeding all expectations and surpassing all other sales WHY? Because first of all the public knows when "West" advertises a bargain that it will be found exactly as advertised. WHY? BECAUSE here you will find only the highest grade merchandise, all priced extraordinarily low—not a lot of cheap goods at cheap prices. BECAUSE this sale is a real forced sacrifice where absolutely every article in the store is reduced—not a trumped up excuse to attract a crowd. Many lines reduced still lower for final cleanup.
