WHO MAY PRAY AND WHO MAY NOT

Prayer Is Not a Duty, but an Inestimable Privilege, Says Pastor Russell.

Sinners May Approach Him Only in the Appointed Way—"No Man Cometh Unto the Father but by Me." Formalistic Prayer Valueless—Public Prayer—Private Prayer—Family Prayer—Prayers Which Never Ascend to God—Rejected Prayers—Prayers of Praise and Thanksgiving—Incense Before God—The Prayers of the Saints Are Limited.

Springfield, Mass., July 14.—Yesterday opened an eight day convention of the International Bible Students association. The attendance is large, Pastor Russell was one of the speakers yesterday. We report his discourse on the prayer, form the text "Mine House shall be called an House of Prayer for all people."—Isaiah 56:7. The Pastor said: These words applied to the Jewish Temple, which in turn was typical of the Spiritual Temple of the future. The antitypical Temple has not yet been built. St. Peter describes it as the Church in glory, whose chief Corner Stone is Christ, and whose living stones are the saints of God, now being chiseled and polished for places in that Temple.

As the stones of Solomon's Temple were all completed before the construction was begun, so the Church of Christ will be constructed at the end of this Age, after all the "living stones" shall have been fitted for glory. This will be accomplished by the power of the First Resurrection—"changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye"; for "flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God."

As in the type, so the finished antitypical structure will be followed by Divine recognition. The Temple will be filled with the glory of the Lord, and thus marked as His dwelling place forever. Thus will be established—very soon, we trust—God's antitypical House of Prayer, wherein and where by all mankind may come into fellowship with their Creator and have communion with Him through His appointed agencies.

Only Consecrated Priests Pray. When I refer to consecrated priests, said Pastor Russell, do not misunderstand me to mean the clergy of any or all denominations. The Bible recognizes no priestly class, but declares: "All ye are brethren. One is your Master, even Christ." (Matthew 23:8.) For eighteen centuries God's work in the world has been to call out a Royal Priesthood class. Jesus, their High Priest, was first called to suffering and then to glory; and His footstep followers have done the same. Through this Royal Priesthood the world will, in the future, have access to God.

Wrong Views Respecting Prayer.

Pastor Russell then showed conclusively that nearly all have discerned the subject of prayer very indistinctly. Sinners have been urged to pray; moralists, who have never accepted Christ as their Savior, have been chided for not praying. The impression has been given that God is very anxious to be approached by anybody at any time. This the Pastor declares is a mistake. As no one would think of rushing informally into the presence of an earthly potentate, so none should expect to enter the Divine Presence without preparation, and to ask Heavenly favors with selfishness more or less filling the heart.

God has a special arrangement whereby His consecrated people may approach Him. "We [the Royal Priesthood] have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous," writes the Apostle John. But before the Redeemer will become Advocate for any, certain terms must be complied with. He serves only those who become His disciples. None others have any assurance whatever of Divine supervision of their affairs, or any authority for coming to God in prayer.

The Pastor stated one exception to this Divine rule. The children of consecrated parents have a standing before God through their relationship to their parents. But this standing manifestly terminates shortly after the child reaches a personal knowledge of its responsibilities. Thereupon it must make a personal covenant with the Lord, or else have its standing with the remainder of the world.

That standing, the Pastor reminded his hearers, does not mean liability to everlasting torment. It means alienation from God and His special providences in the present time; for the Divine arrangement is for the ultimate blessing of Adam and all of his posterity through the Messianic Kingdom.

The Pastor concluded by declaring that the truth on this subject may bring many indifferent ones to the point of decision and thus greatly benefit them. He believes that many Christians are asleep, and should be awakened to realize that they are trifling with the Gospel call. Such may awake to find themselves forever outside the High Calling and the privileges of the Church.

Don'ts on Rheumatism.

Rheumatism is stubborn as a mule. Hangs on like a leech, wears you out, worries you with pain, drags your vitality, depresses your mind and health. Don't give up to it. Don't let it hang on. Don't over-look Foley Kidney Pills. They are a natural enemy to the conditions that cause rheumatism, which they will promptly remove. Hill's Drug Store. Adv.
