LICENSE TO TEACH GIVEN

PROF. JOHN GIRDLER OBTAINS YEAR PERMIT.

Instructors in Mathematics and English Elected Last Night.

License to teach in public schools in Oregon were yesterday evening given to John Girdler, new superintendent of public schools in La Grande.
This license is for one year and is the last step necessary to be taken in assuming management of the La Grande schools.

Last evening two teachers were assigned to duties in the high school.
Miss Sarah Riddle was appointed instructor of mathematics to succeed Prof. E. E. Houston and Janet Hershey of Denver, was elected to fill the chair of English to succeed Miss Lucile Allen.

L. RAYBURN SECOND BEST

HANDICAP EVENT AT POTLATCH SEES RECORDS.

Lou Rayburn Wins High Record at Big Shoots Against 60 Comers.

La Grande's reputation as a home of blue rock cracks was maintained by Lou Rayburn at the big Potlatch shoot in Seattle this week. Yesterday Rayburn finished the match with second high place in two of the biggest handicap events of the shoot. Over sixty contestants including the best amateurs in Pacific Northwest states participated, and Rayburn's record is an enviable one.

Ed Morris the professional, well known to all followers of the blue rock game in this city, wires the Observer from Seattle that Rayburn's performance was exceptionally good.
This year Rayburn has cleaned up shoots at Huntington, Eugene and Boise and now pulls second place at Seattle the last named match being reckoned as one of the hardest competition shoots in this section of the country.

MRS. E. S. NORRIS HURT.

Broom Rack Falls and Strikes Lady on Head and Face.

Mrs. E. S. Norris is recovering rapidly from a near-fatal accident a few days ago when a broom rack in the Co-operative grocery store fell and grazed her forehead, leaving deep gashes in the cheek. By the fraction of an inch the heavy load missed a square blow on the skull that doubtlessly would have been much more serious than it was through the grazing blow. The rack struck her glasses in the fall and the broken parts gashed her cheek considerably.

Orai Watching Ditches.

Prosecution of ranchers who have failed to put in screens in their irrigation ditches along Pine creek will be started August 1, according to Game Warden Charles B. Orai, states the Baker Herald. Many of the trout which were placed in that stream last year are reported as running down the ditches owing to improper protection.

Reports have come to the game warden that many fishermen are catching trout less than three inches in length and it is the intention of the official to prosecute all cases that come to his notice.

WOULD BE ASSASSIN OF KING SOON TO BE SENTENCED.

Copyright by International News Service.

Sanchez Allegre, who attempted to assassinate King Alfonso, of Spain, last April while the monarch was riding through the streets of Madrid. Fortunately the attempt failed. Allegre was caught. The photograph was taken shortly before he was placed on trial, while he was taking exercise in the prison yard at Madrid. Allegre was convicted, but has not yet been sentenced. His fate will probably be decided within a brief time.

PORTLAND AGITATORS

Albee ordered all street speaking stopped.

Police to Arrest all I. W. S.

Following the riot last night, in which deputy sheriffs and police cleared the streets of industrial workers, sympathizers and citizens, and when nearly 100 were struck with clubs and many knocked down, the authorities have issued an order to arrest all industrial agitators on a charge of vagrancy. Four were arrested at noon.

Dr. Equi Must Leave State.

Dr. Marie Equi one of the leaders to speak here and who was arrested of the band of women who attempted will leave the state before midnight assault with a deadly weapon. The instead of facing trial on a charge or authorities agreed upon this and friends of the woman asked that they be allowed to take the woman to Seattle or California.

BIG SOCIAL ON TONIGHT

LADIES OF ALTAR SOCIETY ARE HOSTESSES.

Catholic Organization to Stage Big Affair This Evening.

This will be a big night for the Ladies of the Altar society. All is in readiness for the lawn social at Fourth and Pennsylvania avenue and with the weather just right for ice cream and lemonade, a large crowd is expected.

Mr. George Hennessy, the genial superintendent of the chapel car, arrived in town yesterday and was immediately signed up to act as auctioneer at the apron sale. He promises something novel and effective, including a parade of eligible young men dressed in the aprons they have purchased. Rumor has it that George was recently married but he promised to lead the procession just the same.
The grounds will be brilliantly lighted and there will be fine music all evening, including vocal solos by the redoubtable George.

month. Mrs. Bates, mother of Mrs.
Bridges, until recently a resident of this city, who has been in Portland with her daughter, will not return with them but will continue on to California, where she expects to make her future home.

SOON BE READY TO SERVE.

New Institution to Occupy the Lewis Building on Depot Street.

Believing that La Grande should have a modern cafeteria and delicatessen Charles Bezucho and Vincent Ledman have leased the Bird Lewis equipping it with a most modern and complete outfit. Everything will be along sanitary lines. Besides the tray service of the cafeteria the delicatesen department will furnish families with the "ready-to-serve" commodities. It will be only a few days until they are ready for business. The managers announce all white help and that four additional families will be brought to La Grande with the new business.

BAKER FIRE COSTLY.

Socialist Hall Burns Early This Morning With Heavy Losses.

The socialist hall on Center street between Second and Third streets was almost entirely destroyed by fire which broke out about 1 o'clock this morning and which offered such stubborn resistance that the fire department had a hard task on their hands to get it under control says the Baker Democrat today. It is a frame building and the blaze had made good headway before the alarm was turned in.
The origin of the fire cannot be ascertained. So far as the officers of the socialist organization know, there was no one in the building at all last evening. From the appearances of the burned building, the fire started in the front part under the stairway leading to the balcony, but this is mere guess work. When the alarm was turned in it was blazing up in good shape and the efforts of the firemen were directed largely to saving the store of Max Elias, which adjoined the burned building, and William Warfel's grocery, two doors west In this they were successful after strenuous efforts, for the socialist building burned like tinder and broke out afresh several times when it was apparently all out.

The building is owned by the local socialist organization and was erected a little over a year ago at an approximate cost of $2500. It is partially insured but what amount was carried could not be learned. It will probably be rebuilt, according to some of the socialists who were question-
