Starkell Released by Sweet.

Pendleton, July 23.—Pendleton fans will be pleased to learn that President W. N. Sweet of the Western Tri-State league has at last awakened to the fact that Connie Starkell is sadly deficient as an umpire and has put the skids under him. He was released yesterday and James J. Richardson, well known sporting writer, who has been acting as scorer at Boise and who has held the indicator in the league on several other emergencies, was appointed to fill the vacancy. Richardson was sent to Pendleton and will act as arbiter here this week. Russ Hall having been dispatched to Walla Walla for the Walla Walla-Boise series.

Starkell had had rough riding in North Yakima during the past two weeks, according to reports, one of which said he had been persistently favoring the home team in close decisions. It is possible that that was the deciding element in moving Sweet to hand him the blue slip. Richardson knows base ball from soup to nuts and has given general satisfaction on the other occasions when he called the plays.

Maxmeyer Married.

News comes from Portland of the marriage of Dick Maxmeyer, former pitcher for La Grande, during the 1912 season. Following is the account:

An introduction then friendship love and finally a hurried trip in an automobile to Portland's Gretna Green at Vancouver, Wash., is the six months' span of Richard Maxmeyer's romance. Maxmeyer, the southpaw pitcher whose peculiar delivery sent thousands of Portland's base ball fans into convulsions when he was pitching for the Portland Northwestern league club after leaving Oregon Agricultural college, was married Saturday in Vancouver, Wash., by the Rev. J. M. Canse to Miss Mayetta Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson of Hailburton, Ontario, Canada. The wedding is a complete surprise to Maxy's hundreds of friends in Portland.

Mrs. Maxmeyer's parents came to Portland from Ontario about a year ago and returned to Canada a couple of months ago. Maxmeyer and his bride will make their home on Maxey's farm near Corbett station. The southpaw, who has been pitching for semi-professional clubs around Portland since he quitted the Northwestern aggregation this spring, states that he will continue his base ball playing.

30,000 VOICES

And Many Are the Voices of La Grande People

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. La Grande people are in this chorus. Here's a La Grande case.

W. S. Ray, carpenter, 902 Washington avenue, La Grande, Ore., says: "Two years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble, brought on by straining my back at carpenter work. I had dull pains in my loins and my kidneys got to acting badly. Soon my back got lame and sore and it hurt me to stoop or lift. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and they soon fixed me up in good shape. I can certainly recommend this grand kidney medicine."
