INTERIOR OF OREGON FERTILE

PRESIDENT FARRELL OF O.-W. ENDS TRIP.

Diversified Farming Has Become the Practice of Farmers.

Portland, July 28.—With the assertion that all the money being expended in the great interior Oregon is fully justified, President J. D. Farrell, of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. has returned after having spent seven days touring the state by train, auto and wagon. Other officials of the company in the party were Vice President and General Manager J. P. O'Brien and Traffic Manager R. B. Miller.

Construction of the Oregon Eastern line east and west line of the O.-W. R. & N. system, will be pushed on to Riverside, about 80 miles from Vale and eventually to Odell, on the Natron cut-off of the Southern Pacific, in accordance with the surveys. It is understood that eventually the Deschutes river line of the O.-W. R. & N. will be extended from its present terminus to Odell, although President Farrell is not prepared at this time to say when this will be done, nor how soon the Oregon Eastern will be stretched across the state to the point at which it will have physical connection with the Southern Pacific.

"Crop conditions are fine and while this was my first trip through the interior of the state, I could readily see that an era of great development has dawned there. The farmers are cultivating their lands earnestly and systematically, and diversified farming is replacing the large wheat farms. We saw alfalfa that was a revelation and poultry and cattle and horses and hogs that pleased the eye. Poultry raising is becoming an important industry and with great success, it appears. Vegetables and all kinds of crops showed up splendidly, and I was indeed very favorably impressed on the entire trip," said Mr. Farrell.

Those Who Use the Celebrated Elkhorn Flour

Express unmistakable praise for it. Read what a professional cook has to say—

Oregon Mill & Grain Co., Baker, Oregon. Stoddard's Camp, Whitney, Oregon. May 19, 1913.

I have been using your "Elkhorn" Flour all winter in this camp and find it superior to "Snow Drift" and other brands of Washington flour. Yours truly, A. A. NORTON, Cook Stoddard's Camp

Oregon Mill & Grain Co., Baker, Oregon. Stoddard's Camp, Whitney, Oregon. Gentlemen:

I received your letter, and will say you may publish the letter if you want to as I have used a good many brands of western flour and yours is one of the very best. Yours truly, A. A. NORTON.

ELKHORN FLOUR MAKES GOOD IN EVERY TEST—IT IS A GENUINE ARTICLE.
