Columbia Joe Found Dead.

Columbia Joe, well known old Indian medicine man, was found lying dead by the side of the road near Taquilla yesterday morning about 9:00 o'clock but there was nothing about the appearance of the body nor no circumstances to indicate that death had not come from natural causes. says the Pendleton East Oregonian. The old man had been in the city Saturday afternoon and had started for the reservation. It is presumed that he became ill, tied his horse by the roadside and lay down to die. Some boys observed the horse yesterday morning and, upon investigation found the body. They notified the authorities and Undertaker John Baker went out after the body. It was buried this afternoon in the cemetery south of the agency. Columbia Joe was about 75 years old and was a picturesque looking old Indian. He was a Columbia river Indian but had been allotted land on the local reservation. He was a medicine man and a number of years ago was accused by George Marshall, another Indian, of being responsible for the death of the latter's wife which occurred in the John Day valley. Marshall declared that Dr. Joe was in the mountains and scattered bad medicine in the valley and he threatened to kill the old man. The deceased man is survived by four children, three of whom are Maud, Tom and Susie Joe, the latter being sometimes known as Yakamakla.

LADD CANYON CROPS GOOD

HAY ABOUT CUT AND YIELD IS PROLIFIC.

Binders Commence Work and Prospects Exceptionally Good.

Ladd Canyon, Aug. 5.—(Special)—A few have commenced binding their grain. The outlook for grain of various kinds this year is very good.

The weather here is ideal for harvesting. The wild hay is nearly all harvested and farmers have commenced cutting their second crop of alfalfa hay. Ladd Canyon is completely dotted with hay stacks.

Considering the weather, Mr. Linbarger had quite a good many at his park picnicking Sunday during the day.

Miss Verda Graham and mother Mrs. Lucy Graham, delightfully entertained the Ladd Canyon Epworth league members and friends with a party at their home Friday night, music, games and refreshments were mingled and enjoyed by a good many who were: Misses Dora Geizer, Golda Bainbridge, Lulu Counsell, Vera Dickerson, Irene Mulholland, and Kate Counsell; Messrs. Fred Grout, Neil Watson, of La Grande; Henry Counsell, Fred Carr, Sanford Miller, Percy Dickinson, Frank Counsell, Raymond Stump and Edward Graham.

Miss Verda Graham has gone to North Powder to spend two or three weeks visiting with relatives and friends.

The Misses Lulu and Kate Counsell and brothers, Harry and Frank Counsell, left this morning for Joseph, at which place they will spend a week or so with relatives. They will make the trip by team, chiefly for an outing, which will require nearly two days each way. They were accompanied by an Uncle Samuel Scott, who recently arrived from their destination.

James McClure is recovering from a badly sprained ankle. The accident occurred during harvesting when he jumped off the hay buck into a hole in the ground.

Miss Verna Dickinson and brother Percy Dickinson, are here visiting their cousin, Miss Golda Bainbridge.
