DULLNESS IN MEAT DEALS

PORTLAND YARDS SHOW WEAKER TENDENCIES.

Prime Cattle Alone Remain Firm and Active—Hogs Bearish.

Portland Stockyards, Portland, Ore., Aug. 7.—Stock is having a dull time of it in the Portland stock yards. Yesterday the run at the yards was a small one all around, the totals unloaded during the past 24 hours being 27 cattle, 251 sheep and 150 hogs, and trade as a consequence was limited.

Several sales, all of small lots of fair to medium grade stock, were reported in the cattle division, steers going at $6.20 to $7.50 and cows at $5.50 to $6.50. The prices paid in these transactions were held not to indicate any weakening in the cattle market, which, for prime finished stock, was declared still to be steady and strong in tone.

The market on mutton stuff, as for some weeks back, was an easy affair. A falling off in the demand for sheep and lambs is always expected during the hot season, so the reaction there at this time occasioned no surprise. Prime weathers for the time are holding at $3.75 to $4 and best ewes at $3 to $3.50, while lambs that show good quality and finish are said to be movable at prices around $5.50.

In the hog market also the day was a dull one, and in some quarters there was a rather bearish feeling regarding the price movement in the near future. The best hogs moved yesterday brought $9.60, 15 cents short of last week's closing top quotations, and a still lower figure is held to be among the possibilities in view of the fact that the packers for the time are fairly well supplied with pork material.

Local market quotations today are: Fresh ranch eggs—30c. Butter—Fancy creamery, 25 cents 1 lb. roll; 2 lb. roll 70c. Ranch butter—1 lb. roll 30c; 2 lb. roll 60c.

Byron's Burned Memoirs.

All lovers of Byron are aware that this erratic genius found time in his short, adventurous life to write his memoirs and that on his death these passed into the hands of his friend, Thomas Moore, who, exercising a discretion committed to him, promptly consigned the manuscript to the flames. No doubt the writer of "Irish Memoirs" had very good and highly proper reasons for taking this decisive step, and it is quite likely that the publication of the memoirs would not, for obvious reasons, have been possible for many years after the poet's death; yet as succeeding generations have been brought face to face with the peculiarly complex genius of Byron, with its lofty moods and its many dark places, they have felt need of the light which only the records written by a vanished hand could leave supplied.—Philadelphia Ledger

Never at a Loss.

An English nobleman was recently visiting New York and at a dinner there he told, apropos of self confidence, a story about a young English statesman.

"This youth," his lordship said, "ought to get on. He works hard and nothing ever feazes him.

"He wanted recently to push a bill that had little support from his own party. A friend, however, said to him in a warning voice:

"But suppose, my boy, this bill should cause your party to throw you overboard?"

"Well, in that case, old chap," he replied, "I'm quite sure I'd have strength enough to swim across to the other side."—Washington Star.

An Indiscreet Listener.

Host's Youngest—Don't your shoes feel very uncomfortable when you walk, Mrs. Nuryche? Mrs. Nuryche—Dear me, what an extraordinary question! Why do you ask, child? Youngster—Oh, only 'cos pa said the other day since you'd come into your money you'd got far too big for your boots.—London Stray Stories.

Depends.

"Do you think talking of expression, that 'amid' is better than 'among'?" "Yes, especially if it is at Annapolis, where a mid is among lasses."—Baltimore American
