Presented Star Attraction This Week.

Vaudeville Star Closes Engagement Tomorrow

"La Petite Elva." The tiniest comedienne, who has appeared here in vaudeville for some time, singing, talking, dancing, her quaint mannerisms and charming little ways catch the fancy of every audience, and receives a hand at the close of each number that would turn the head of many an old artist. This little miss has just passed her seventh summer and yet she appears to be on the high road to a successful stage career. Her mamma laughingly remarks that she began to act just as few minutes after she was born and has been acting ever since. In the mornings she spends her time studying just like other little girls and in the afternoons and evenings she amuses the grown-ups who like her and insist on calling her back again and again. She closes her engagement here tomorrow night, and to all those who fail to see this flaxen-haired little miss, and the management will say, you have indeed missed a rare treat.
