

NORTH POWDER COUNCIL MEETS

SHOWS NORTH POWDER TO BE "UP TO TIME"

Many Topics of Local Interest Brought Up Before the Officials.

North Powder, Aug. 12.—The North Powder News says: The city council met in regular session Monday night with Mayor Lambert presiding. All members were present except Councilmen Smith and Johnson, who are out of the city.

The usual number of bills for expenses were allowed.

The ditch in front of the Wiggins residence was declared a nuisance and an ordinance was drafted and passed to third reading to abate the nuisance. The executrix of the Kelsey estate was represented at the council meeting and expressed a willingness to either pipe or plank the ditch through the city.

It was decided to sprinkle the streets and the Recorder was instructed to advertise for bids for the work.

The city marshal was instructed to have the weeds in the streets cut and to notify property owners to do likewise on their premises.

An ordinance authorizing an election for issuance of bonds for building waterworks passed to first and second readings. The amount of the bonds has not been determined.

SHORES FAMILY LOSES ANOTHER

COVE FAMILY LOSES TWO SONS IN 3 MONTHS.

Magazine Writer at Cove—Cherry Shipments Are Enormous.

Cove, Ore., Aug. 12.—(Special)—Ernest Shores, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shores died Sunday morning at nine o'clock and the funeral was held the afternoon of the same day. The Shores family has had more than its share of trouble this year as the parents lost their oldest son about three months ago by accidentally falling on a nail. And now they have been under quarantine for about six weeks with scarlet fever and diphtheria which resulted in the death of little Ernest.

Magazine Writer at Cove.

Maude Benton of Chicago, is visiting in the Cove. She is a contributor to a Chicago magazine and has just completed a tour of Yellowstone National park in the interests of her publication and will do Oregon and Canada before returning home.

Derrick Injures Workman.

Ray Baker was hurt by a falling derrick last week at his brother's place one mile north of Cove. The prongs of the fork went through the fleshy part of his leg and he was bruised up quite a little.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conley made a trip up into Idaho with their automobile last week.

Judd Geer, Mrs. Blaine Geer and Ada Geer were in La Grande Thursday on a shopping trip.

Carload Shipments Total 50.

Over 50 carloads of cherries have been shipped out of Cove in the past week. This will give some idea of the enormous amount of cherries grown in the Cove. There are many young orchards coming on so that in five years the amount will be more than trebled. Harvesting will commence in full force in the grain fields around Cove this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert French, Dr. and Mrs. McKennon of Arkansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trippe of Walla Walla all made a trip to Wallowa lake last week. Mr. and Mrs. French returned Saturday but the others intend to remain until the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Mat. Mitchell was a Union visitor Wednesday.

Robert French has been giving his house a new coat of paint.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCall and Mrs. McCall's sister, Mrs. Coddington, were in La Grande Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Smith Mitchell, a daughter.

Popular People Married.

The wedding of Miss Ada Houx and Nathan Grey occurred Thursday evening at five o'clock in the justice of peace office in La Grande, Arthur Williams officiating. Miss Houx has lived in the Cove nearly all her life. She was the Cherry queen at the Third Annual Cherry fair held here several weeks ago. Mr. Grey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grey of Lower Cove, and the nephew of the late ex-United States Senator Slater of this state. Both the bride and the groom have a large number of friends all through the community, and all join in wishing them much happiness in the future.
