APPEAL TAKEN IN TWO CASES

OLIVER AND STANCHFIELD FILE APPEALS.

Grain Case and Cement Shipment Issues Taken to Higher Court.

Two cases that were fought out in circuit court this summer have been appealed to the circuit court. E. W. Oliver, who in his suit against the Grande Ronde Grain company, lost in his contentions, has appealed to the higher court.

W. H. Stanchfield last spring sued the Central Railroad of Oregon to gain reimbursement for alleged wrong delivery of some cement to Union, and lost his case and he has now appealed to the circuit court.

IS PERMANENT RESIDENT.

J. A. Jenkins Purchased the F. M. Jackson Residence on Sixth Street.

J. A. Jenkins, the well known jeweler, with Segrist & Co., this week purchased the new, modern bungalow owned by F. M. Jackson on Sixth street, the house just vacated by D. M. Clark. Mrs. Jenkins is visiting friends in the Willamette valley and upon her arrival Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will occupy their new home. The sale was negotiated through the Geo. H. Currey Real Estate Agency.

THE MARKEE BROS.

Arcade Theatre Tonight and Tomorrow Night

The Markee brothers, musical entertainers, playing at the Arcade this week, are among the best that have ever visited this city with no exceptions. The act is filled with comedy, classic music and ragtime which was all greatly enjoyed by the packed house. Three instruments are all that are used, a violin cello, a cornet and a slide trombone, still one would imagine that Sousa and his band were playing a visit to La Grande. The selection by Lipton, "Tis All I Ask," as played by the straight man on the cello, and the selection, Verdi's "El Travatore," by the black face member of the team, accompanied by the other on the trombone, brought the house down with applause. The imitation of "The Min-

MAN WHO KNOWS EVERYBODY IS HOTEL MANAGER.

Veteran Story Teller With Face Remembering Faculty, Locates.

Mike Roach, one of the best known railroad men of the coast, who for the past twenty years, has been connected with Oregon transportation lines, has been engaged by Dr. Tape as clerk at Hot Lake sanatorium. The smiling face of this veteran story teller, handshaker and all around good fellow will be welcomed to the health resort. He probably knows more people personally and can call more men by their first names than either George Chamberlain or Jonathan Bourne and is recognized as an ideal man for the lake. Dr. Tape is gradually completing his organization in as near a perfect manner as can be done, and it will be but a short time until the great institution will be running very smoothly.

Big Trout Landed. Clint Van Fleet and a companion landed a 24-inch silverside salmon trout in Wallowa river yesterday. The catch was made with a No 6 fly hook, and required considerable struggling to get the big fellow ashore. The fish was exactly 24 inches long and lacked two ounces of weighing five pounds. It is one of the finest specimens that has been shown this year.

Luncheon Was Popular. The electrically cooked luncheon served at the Henry & Carr furniture store yesterday afternoon, and evening, was well attended and greatly appreciated by the ladies of La Grande. To see a whole ham placed in an oven without seasoning or moistening was somewhat of a novelty to the ladies, especially after they had eaten some of the savory morsels, and found that they were tender and juicy beyond comparison with the old way of roasting.

Negro Is Lynched. Lauren, So. Carolina, Aug. 12.—Charged with attacking a white woman, R. E. Puckett, a negro, was lynched here today and the body riddled with bullets. The negro protested his innocence to the last.
