Best Story of the Balkan War.

Belgrade, Aug. 21.—Perhaps the best story of the second Balkan war, wherein humor was scarce, is being told here today about a young clerk who was discharged from the Servian war office for unconsciously giving out information to correspondents.

The clerk was accused of indiscretion in giving out war news and when he demanded an explanation, was told that he was "indiscret with his hat." The more acute the angle at which the Servian wears his hat, the greater is supposed to be his exhilaration, and this young man, though as silent as the grave, could not, on hearing of every fresh victory before it was publicly known, resist putting his hat on jauntily awry.

Reporters, when they could get no news from headquarters, watched the young clerk as he left the war office to go out for his lunch. When the hat was worn rakishly on one side, the reporters would return to their offices and write fiery stories of victories that had come to the Servian arms.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.
