Settling Horsemanship Title. Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 23.—The world's championship "bucking" contest was the feature on the program which today closed the week of frontier day celebrations and events. More than two score of the best rough riders of the west were entered and started in the "elimination tests" which consisted in riding various supposedly "unrideable horses." The "fin" of the event consisted in sticking to the back of the famous Steamboat, declared to be "the slickest backed horse in the world".
