E. F. Sinclair, the "Puncture-Stop Man," has the smile that won't come off." Mr. Olson, owner of the "Baby Lion" car, last evening had a very bad "pinch out," due to a defective casing. At the same time Mr. Olson was seized with an attack of "tired feeling" so instead of vulcanizing the "pinch out" as was proper, he merely took the inner tube, which contained "puncture-stop," out and put it in a reserve casing and went on his speed way rejoicing. Mr. Sinclair says, "While Puncture-Stop guarantees to seal punctures only, and not "blow outs or pinch outs," that if he gets any more demonstrations like the above he'll be able to seal a peace contract between the United States and Mexico. Puncture Stop makes a perfect seal.

Stock Permit Denied.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 26.—The Sectional Threshing Cylinder company, of Washington, applying to do business in this state, was denied a permit Monday by Corporation Commissioner Watson, upon the recommendation of S. B. Vincent, examiner for the department, who finds the company has a plant located near Spokane, that it has been in operation since June, 1912, and that up to the present but 30 of its patent cylinders have been manufactured, of which 16 are still undisposed of. The company has also arbitrarily raised its stock from $1 to $5, without showing earnings which, in the opinion of the examiner, would warrant it. The company desires to issue stock sufficient to equip and operate a larger plant. It claims that it can make with its present equipment from 10 to 12 cylinders a day at a profit of $120 on each. Commissioner Watson in his letter refusing a permit says: "If you can make 10 cylinders a day at a profit of $1200 a day with your present plant, $36,000 a month or $432,000 a year, I cannot see the necessity or wisdom of the sale of additional stock. It would appear on the other hand that all unsold or unused stock should be retired as a useless burden on the books."

Whipping Abandoned. Klamath Falls, Ore., Aug. 26.—After considerable argument between Justice of the Peace E. W. Gowen and the sheriff's office, it was found that the law providing for a whipping post for wife beaters had been repealed by the last legislature. Sheriff C. C. Low refused to carry out the sentence of the justice imposed on William Pew. He declared that he would neither allow the man to be whipped, nor would he administer the punishment himself if it cost him his official position. He sent the prisoner back to the justice for re-sentencing. Justice Gowen, after being more thoroughly informed, found that he had no authority to sentence the man to a whipping. Pew is a squaw man, and has on several occasions abused his Indian wife. He was given a jail sentence and a severe reprimand by Justice Gowen.
