LAKESIDE ROAD PLANS HALTED

WRIT OF REVIEW ISSUED IN THE JOSEPH CASE.

Dan Sheahan and Clients Claim Damages Not Paid.

(Enterprise Record-Chief Editor.)

The proposed road along the west bank of Wallowa lake has been halted by a writ of review in the circuit court. The case is that of A. E. Cole vs Wallowa county and the county court, and the writ is to be returned in the circuit court October 1.

Mr. Cole's petition, verified by a certificate of D. W. Sheahan, declares that the county court, when it declared the L. A. Beddingfield road a public highway, exercised its functions "erroneously and exceeded its jurisdiction to the injury of the substantial rights of the plaintiff." Mr. Cole is stated to be the owner of 344 acres of land in the vicinity of the new road.

Going back to the original petition to the county court for the opening of the road, Mr. Sheahan and his client charge that this petition was insufficient because it did not specify the beginning, intermediate and terminating points. They also allege that the affidavits of posting were insufficient. After the road viewers had reported in favor of the road, the county court, May 8, approved this report and ordered the highway open on payment, by the original petitioners, of damages.

Joseph people subscribed the money to pay these damages, and to help along the road, and the court, August 18, declared the proposed road a public highway, ordering the district supervisor to open it for travel, damages of $545 having been paid as follows: D. W. Sheahan and L. F. Anderson, $150; Mary E. Stanley, $175; A. E. Cole, $25; Thompson & Wurzeiler, $175; and Eliza A. Reel, $20. In the action now brought in the Circuit court it is alleged that the damages were not paid in to County Clerk Bilyeu during the same term at which they were ordered paid, as required by law, and that the proposed road will greatly damage plaintiff.

Mr. Sheahan, before leaving for La Grande on Monday, said the road would go a long way through his land and that the damages awarded did not come near reimbursing him.
