CONFERENCE SERVICES FOR TOMORROW.

During Sunday all conference addresses will be held in the auditorium of the high school to give more seating facilities than can be had in the Methodist church. The closing day of the conference will center about the following lectures and events:

- 9:30 a. m., Love feast, led by W. W. Van Dusen.
- 11 a. m., Sermon by Bishop Luccock, D. D.
- 2:30 p. m., Ordination services, always impressive and interesting.
- 4:00 p. m., Memorial services.
- 7:00 p. m., Epworth League, led by G. G. Haley of Boise.
- 8:00 p. m., Anniversary Sunday school board, with Waltham Skipworth, secretary of the church Sunday school board with headquarters at Chicago, and G. A. G. Martin, representing the Freedman's Aid, delivering the principal lectures. The announcement of assignments for the year will come during the day.

Methodists are to take the pulpits in many La Grande churches tomorrow. While the chief interest in a church way tomorrow centers about the sessions at the Methodist church conference, the morning services are to be made additionally important by the fact that visiting ministers will occupy various Episcopal churches. Homer E. Cullison is scheduled to fill the pulpit in the Baptist church, C. E. Deal of Fruitland, the Christian pulpit, and A. W. James the Presbyterian pulpit. In the evening there will be a general meeting of all the Episcopal churches in connection with the Methodist church closing numbers. No Sunday this year will be of more importance to church goers than will tomorrow's numbers. The church announcements for the city follow:
