ENTERPRISE SCHOOLS OPEN

BOTH DEPARTMENTS UNDER FULL SWING TODAY.

Library Plans Enthuse Enterprise—Building to Be Modern.

Enterprise, Or., Sept. 1—(Special)—Both schools open Monday September 1. The teachers of the public schools will be Max Wilson of Joseph, Miss Johns of Willowa, Miss Lyle Murray of Iowa, Miss Mabel Murray of Iowa, Eva Falconer and Janett Woolgerodt of this place. There has been a great improvement in the play grounds as well as the school buildings. On the play ground has been erected swings, merry-go-rounds, tennis court and other means of amusements, while inside of the building has been repapered with solid colored paper. Floors have been painted, doors, windows and seats varnished so everything looks comfortable, as well as attractive. The high school opens with Charles A. Montandon as principal, Misses Dobin and Huff will hold their old positions, while Mr. Glascow will take the place Mr. Howard held last year. This will be the first attempt of Enterprise with the high school, as heretofore it has been a county high school.

A special meeting of the library board was called Saturday evening for the purpose of receiving bids on the new Carnegie library building, the members of the board present were, Dr. Hocket, president; Mrs. J. P. Sanders, secretary; G. W. Hiatt; Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. Burnough. Before opening the bids Dr. Hocket asked which they thought best in the building brick or stone, as some had heretofore mentioned it would be best to use stone as it was a home product. The architect advised the board to use brick as it would look so much better, so it was moved and carried that it would be built of brick with stone trimming.

The brick will cost $500 and will be shipped from La Grande. It was then moved by G. W. Hiatt that the bids be opened, and seconded by Mrs. Knapp, was carried. There were five bids: John Oberg's being received at $4,125. This does not include lighting or heating. A contract was then drawn up with Mr. Oberg and signed by the board. The contract calls for the completion of the building by the [illegible] of November. It will be situated [illegible]rner just north of the Rat-[illegible]iture store. The building [illegible]t.

[illegible] a special meeting of the [illegible]onday evening, called [illegible]f confirming the ac-[illegible]board, which con-[illegible] evening to re-[illegible] library build-[illegible]nt were, Mayor [illegible]enney, Wagner [illegible]rder G. J. Jor-[illegible]od deal of dis-

[illegible] given by the [illegible] Knights of [illegible]e fir grove [illegible]t southeast [illegible]ner Knights are [illegible]y and bring their [illegible]ll filled bas-kets an[illegible]day in regu-lar, old f[illegible]ic style.

R. C. Be[illegible]ct manager of the Mutual Life [illegible]surance company of New York, was stopping over in this part Wednesday and Thursday.

Prentiss Homan's new house on Alder Slope is progressing nicely.

S. K. Clark, the city marshal will ring the curfew bell at 8:30 to keep the children off the streets.

There will be new books for circulation at the library in about a week which are mostly fiction and children's books in this order.

Miss Eva Falconer has returned from Joseph, where she has been attending the summer school.

Claud Lockwood and family, of La Grande, have been on avisit through the valley. They camped two weeks at the lake, and later visited here with Mrs. Lockwood's mother, Mrs. Ellen Boswell and also at Wallowa on their way home.

There is a new bridge being erected across the river on Almo street. It will be made of concrete.

H. C. Bower, while driving pretty fast yesterday with his far. ran into a telephone post, bursting a tire and doing some other slight damages.

George Jasper and family of the Cove, who have been camped above Lostine on South Fork for the last two weeks, returned home on Friday after catching a fine lot of trout.

The Dennie Grocery store has again changed hands. Jimmie Funk traded the place he recently bought of Walt Teel, northeast of town, and also other property in the deal.

The new play house will be built of black marble if nothing happens to prevent it. H. L. Cunningham secured the privilege of getting it from the marble quarry free of cost. It will be the first of the marble that has been used for building purposes, although there are abundance of marble up Hurricane creek canyon; both marble and granite.

The old opera house will be improved. A new roof will be added; will be repaired, painted and a better heating system installed. New painting and a picture projecting machine of the Vonoscope type; a new machine that will improve moving picture shows will be gitten.

Miss Laura Kouch will teach at Flora this year that school not to begin for a week or so in September.

J. M. Scholl, who was principal of the last half of the public school last year has returned after being in Wisconsin during vacation. He says he liked the country so well he decided to return and join the band of home steaders and teach again this winter if he can get a school near his homestead. He is now helping on the school building here.

Miss Fannie Broton has been hired to teach at Alder this coming school year. Her school will begin September 1.

Mutton sheep are now being shipped out of the county. Mr. Palmer purchased 1000 head of lambs last week of J. Dobin at 4 cents a pound.

Mrs. J. C. Conley and Mrs. Amey have gone to La Grande to attend a conference of which they were delegates.

Richard Struble is just recovering from an operation of the throat. He is able to be out, and came to town.
