ENTERPRISE NEWS BRIEFS

PERSONAL MENTION FROM ENTERPRISE VICINITY.

Council Holds Regular Session—New Bungalow Rising.

Enterprise, Ore., Sept. 2.—Mrs. R. H. Rudd came down from Joseph on Sunday for a week visiting old friends Mrs. Barnwell and children of La Grande, are visiting Mrs. McKinney, her mother, at Alder; also relatives in town.

The regular council meeting was held in the city hall Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis and daughter, of Nebraska, are here looking at the country and visiting at Delbert Hoffman's. Mr. Davis is an old time friend of Mr. Emmons. Mr. Emmons and his living neighbors in the state of Nebraska. His son married a daughter of Mr. Emmons. George Emmons having sold his place northwest of town, sold his household good, also some stock at said place August 30. He will move to Walla Walla, Wash.

Miss Horn was in from her home-stand yesterday.

Some of the girls decorated the opera house for the Alumnus dance that was given there Saturday evening. Twenty-five invitations were sent out.

Ora Wagner's new bungalow on Fourth street, is nearing completion. It will add to the looks of that end of the town.

Lon Davis has sold his store to Fred Smith, son of A. C. Smith, one of the oldest residents of the county. Fred has been staying in town with his mother most of the time since his father's death two years ago.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED STREET IMPROVEMENT.

To whom it may concern: You are hereby notified that the commissioners appointed by the common council, of the city of La Grande, Oregon, to make an examination of the property upon which assessments are to be levied to pay the costs and expenses of the street improvement hereinafter described, as to the valuation and extent, if any of the benefits to be derived by said property by reason of said improvement, have made their report in writing to said council, which report has been received by said council, and is on file in the office of the recorder of said city, and is open for your inspection. That it is the intention of said council to levy a special assessment against all the property hereinafter described for the purpose of paying the costs and expenses of improving Spring avenue from the Southwest property line of Washington avenue to the west curb line of Alder street by laying thereon hard surface pavement and constructing concrete curbs and drainage according to the plans and specifications therefor heretofore adopted by said council and on file in the office of the recorder of said city.

That the real property included in and the boundaries of the district benefitted and affected by said proposed improvement are as follows:

Beginning at a point 120 feet west of the west property line of Alder street, said point being due west of the center of Block 11, Romig's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon; and running thence east through the center of Blocks 11, 8, 5 and 2 to Romig's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon and through the center of Blocks 13 and 10, Grandy's addition to the City of La Grande, Oregon and continuing on the same line through the unsubdivided property lying between the west property line of Fourth street and the east property line of said Block 10, Grandy's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon, to the center line of Fourth street; thence south along the center line of Fourth street to a point 120 feet north from the north property line of Spring avenue; thence east through blocks 103, 102 and 101, Chaplain's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon, to the center line of Washington avenue; thence southerly along the center line of Washington avenue to the center line of Seventh street, hence south

BUMPER CROPS AT LONE STAR

OATS YIELD HEAVIEST IT HAS BEEN FOR YEARS.

Two Threshing Outfits Keep Busy Harvesting Grain.

Lone Star, Sept. 2.—(Special)—The fall wheat is about all threshed and safely housed in the different warehouses. Next comes a bumper crop of barley. Oats will be the best and largest crop ever harvested in this section. The George McDonald thresher is doing its usual good work in this district.

The McDonald Brothers are harvesting a fair crop of wheat on their Butte farm.

Never has this district been so busy as it has been this last week. Two threshers and combine headers and mowers are all at work in the opposite fields make a lovely sight, and the weather is beautiful to help the farmers along.

C. C. Conrad is binding a record breaking crop of oats.

along the center line of Seventh street to a point opposite the center of block 13, Chaplain's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon; thence west through the centers of Blocks 99, 98 and 97 Chaplain's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon and continuing west on the same line across the unsubdivided property lying between the west property line of Fourth street and the east property line of block 11, Grandy's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon and continuing west on the same line through blocks 11 and 12 Grandy's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon and through the centers of blocks 3, 4, 9 and 10 Romig's addition to the city of La Grande, Oregon to a point west 120 feet from the west property line of Alder street; thence north to the place of beginning, all in the city of La Grande, Oregon, and the estimated cost of said proposed improvement is $31,000.00. You will further take notice that said city council will meet at the council chamber in the city building of said city on the 10th day of September, 1913, at eight o'clock p. m., of said day to consider making said proposed levy and will then and there grant a hearing to any and all persons feeling aggrieved against, or on account of, said proposed assessment.

Dated at La Grande, Oregon, this 28th day of August, 1913.
