Dusky Sons Were Permitted to Ride as Far as Baker by Trainman.

Baker, Ore., Sept. 5.—Frank Larney and Frank Haskell, two dusky sons hailing from Kansas City, got "bad" with the brakeman on train No. 5 last evening, threatening to beat him up if they could get at him, it is alleged. Rather than take the thrashing he knew he would receive at the hands of the negroes, the brakeman allowed his dark passengers to ride as far as Baker. They were picked up by Officer Brennen, lodged in the city jail, and this morning Judge Cuning gave the offenders 30 days for vagrancy.

chauteauqua addresses. He has a number of "stock" addresses but he always believes in "producing" several new ones every year. In the meantime Mrs. Clark is busy writing her autobiography and memories of Washington. Bennet Clark, is studying law at a summer school and Miss Genevieve Clark is studying music abroad. Young Bennett has to find time for his law studies when he isn't acting as house parliamentarian, which position he holds.
