This year will be a record breaker for the La Grande students, who will attend state schools. A number of La Grande students graduated from the state schools last year and this year the same number of new students return to the places they vacated. Beside those who will attend state schools there are a number who will go to schools in Washington and California while some go east. Following is a partial list of the students who leave this and next week for colleges:

man, where she goes for her second year.

Island City was host and La Grande was guest last night at Riverside park pavilion when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Kiddle and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kiddle, all of Island City, entertained about 200 guests at dancing. It was the usual grand success that has attended all mid-summer parties given at the park pavilion. Informality was king though, out and the gracious hosts and hostesses were showered with congratulations. The park proper was not lighted up as usual because of lack of power, due to a severe drain by irrigation pumps, but the park was beautiful for all that and until after the midnight hour this morning the guests enjoyed the exceptionally delightful music and hospitality of the hosts and hostesses. Light refreshments were served late in the evening, and the punch bowl was kept filled throughout the evening. La Grande must perforce admit that Island City people are not back numbers in entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thorson of Elgin, were out of town guests for the evening.

During the evening a plan developed to repair the broken dam and establish a skating pond for winter sport. It was discussed at length and it is thus possible to make the park a social center both winter and summer.

The ladies of the Neighborhood club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. T. Richardson. At this meeting delegates were elected to attend the state Federation of Woman's clubs which convenes at Hood River on October 6th. The delegates were Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Mrs. J. T. Williamson and Mrs. J. T. Richardson. Alternates: Mrs. Albert Hunter, Mrs. F. M. Jackson and Mrs. H. C. Grady.

The ladies also decided to lend any aid possible to the representatives of the O. A. C. extension courses and will be patronesses at the meeting held here on Monday and Tuesday of next week at the Commercial club rooms.

Owing to the meeting of the Federation of Woman's clubs the Neighborhood ladies will not meet again until Tuesday, October 14th, making it just one week later than usual the opening date.

Last Saturday night a number of girls were entertained at a slumber party at the Riddle ranch near Island City, by the Misses Mildred Riddle and Hallie Adler. The young ladies arrived at 7:30 and were immediately ushered to a beautiful spot on the river bank under giant shade trees. Here they spent a most pleasant evening around great camp fires and the feasts of the camp fires were theirs in abundance. After shivery stories had been told and the last ember was dying the young ladies were led to beds which were made under the trees and the stary sky. The morning hours found all awake and ready to partake of a most delicious breakfast served in the open and consisting of four courses. The young ladies' guests were: Helen Currey, Alice Hill, Gladys Osterling, Jeanette Wheatley, Christine Wheatley, Ruth Adler, Katherine Riddle, Ruth Gormley.

An interesting program consisting of music, cards, refreshments and dancing has been outlined.

Complimenting Miss Gertrude Eakin, who arrived last Monday from Salem to be a guest with her brother, Robert Eakin, Mrs. H. R. Hanna entertained a number of young folks on Thursday afternoon.
