TRESPASS LAW NOT CLEAR ONE

"FISHERMAN" ASKS PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

Fishing on Inclosed Property Has Its Legal Difficulties.

La Grande, Ore., Sept. 6.—(To the Editor)—There has been a great deal of discussion among the anglers of Union county, as to whether or not a person entering the premises of another to fish, without permission, is a trespasser.

It is contended by many, that any persons desiring to fish on the premises of another, without permission, is not a trespasser as long as he remains in the creek, or passes over the premises by wading down the creek between the high-water lines. Up to the present time, however, I have been unable to find any authority of law for such a contention; but, on the contrary, it seems that the laws passed by the last legislature suggest a somewhat opposite view.

Section 1985, Lord's Oregon laws, provides:

"If any person other than an officer on lawful business shall go or trespass upon any inclosed lands or premises not his own, and shall fail, neglect or refuse to depart therefrom immediately and remain away until permitted to return upon verbal or printed or written notice of the owner or person in the owner or person in the lawful occupation of said lands or premises, such trespasser shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine of not less than $5.00 or more than $50.00, and shall be committed, in default of payment of the fine and costs imposed to the jail of the county in which the offense was committed."

Section 1986, Lord's Oregon laws, as amended by chapter 185, laws 1913, at page 349 thereof, provides:

"Printed or written notices having attached thereto by authority, the name of the owner or person in the lawful occupation of said lands or premises and requiring all persons to forbear trespassing on said lands or premises and to depart therefrom, posted in three conspicuous places on said lands or premises shall be held and deemed to be sufficient prima facie evidence of notice as mentioned in section 1985."

Section 41, chapter 232, laws 1913, at page 441 thereof, provides:

"Navigable rivers, sloughs or streams within the meander lines, or if not meandered, between the lines of ordinary high water thereof, of the state of Oregon, and all rivers, sloughs and streams flowing through any public lands of the state shall hereafter be public highways for the purpose of angling thereon and any rights or title to such streams, or the lands between the high water flow lines or within the meander lines of navigable streams hereafter acquired by any person shall be subject to the right of any person owning an angler's license of this state, who desires to angle therein or along their banks, to go upon the same for such purpose, provided, that the provisions of this act shall not interfere with valid existing rights."

From my examination of the law, I am unable to find anything in addition to the foregoing provisions, which will permit any angler or fisherman to enter the inclosed premises of another and fish thereon without permission, provided, notices have been posted as required by section 1986, as amended.

The law is plain in this connection relative to persons who enter inclosed premises for the purpose of hunting; but there seems to be no provisions permitting a person to enter inclosed premises for the purpose of fishing.

There are few anglers who desire to enter the premises of another unless they have a legal right to do so, and none of us have any desire to be subject to arrest when we innocently enter inclosed premises of another without permission.

If there is any law which authorizes us to enter inclosed premises and fish thereon between the high water lines, I would appreciate very much to be advised, and I think there are many others who would receive it with an equal appreciation.

If we are a bunch of sports and artists in casting the rod, let's be sports and artists, but while we're doing it, let us be law abiding citizens and know our rights.

Yours very respectfully,
A Fisherman of Some Note (?)

Good Time Now for Blood Health

Warm Days and Proper Help do Wonders for the Blood.

A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin scales off in tiny flecks, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results. The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutriment it requires for regeneration.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin diseases that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 180 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.
