Mr. Dagget was in town today with a load of fine apples, raised on his place on the Slope. He says this is his last year on the farm as he is going to have a sale in three weeks and will sell all his stock and farming implements and move to Joseph to make his home. Mr. Dagget came to the valley six years ago from the state of Iowa. When he first came he hardly knew whether he could make anything here or not, but he has paid for the place he bought up near the timber and laid up enough to keep him and Mrs. Dagget without continuing work on the farm. Mr. Dagget brought the honey bee to Walla Walla county, no one thinking before he came that they would live here. He has had good success with them, raising all the honey he wanted for his own use and selling quite a lot.
