ALABAMA MINSTRELS TO BE IN LA GRANDE TONIGHT ONLY

The Alabama Minstrels, noted far and wide as a splendid company, will present their program this evening at Seventh and Q streets in a huge tent. They are here for tonight only and of their show, the following is said:

ALABAMA MINSTRELS.
The famous Alabama minstrels were at the Orpheum last night and they are going to be there again tonight, and it is only fair to people who want to laugh and grow fat to say the minstrels are worthy of a good house.

They have the goods with them. There are colored individuals in the bunch that cloud up and rain hilarity just as good as Billy Van ever did. The minstrels have music in their heads that extends clear down to their feet. Some of the voice are exceptionally good and the chorus work has the atmosphere of the sunny south.

Last night's program was as follows:

Nobody's Fool.....Billy Edwards
Want to Be in Dixie.....Ruth Prince
Last Night Was the End of the World.....A. J. McFarland
Washington Waddle.....Archie Grant

Caught a Bad Cold.

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful" writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncan, of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For sale by all dealers.

Connecticut manufacturers are taboing the stenogs and bookkeepers who essay the split or diaphanous skirts. And there is no doubt that the order emanated right from the firesides of the manufacturers.
