Alabama Minstrels Please.

The Alabama Minstrels, a colored aggregation of funmaking people, traveling in their two well-kept cars, gave a performance in their ten theater at Wyoming and Porphyry streets last night that more than surpassed any colored minstrel show ever given in Butte. The fun was clean and wholesome. It came over the footlights in a steady stream.

Songs of the southland were sung, darky eccentricities and humorisms were portrayed in a manner that proved a genuine delight. Following a highly entertaining minstrel part came an olio that was a vaudeville performance of high class in itself. Appreciation of the efforts of the entertainers was not lacking.

The parade, which preceded the show yesterday, was a creditable showing. The music bore out the oft-repeated statement that it takes a colored band to get harmony. Noon and evening concerts attracted an appreciative crowd.

All in all the show was far above the average tent show.—Butte Miner.

Sherwood Williams Ill.

C. S. Williams, cashier of the Imbler bank, was operated on for appendicitis at the Grande Ronde Hospital yesterday. He was getting along as well as could be expected this morning. Mr. Williams came to La Grande the first of the week to attend the Imbler school case hearing at court and was taken ill at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Grandy. Dr. Barrett, of Imbler and C. T. Bacon took charge of the case.
