FRONTIER DAYS

Walla Walla, Wash., U. S. A.
SEPTEMBER 25, 26, 27, '13

Frontier Days at Walla Walla will, undoubtedly, be the biggest and best attraction of the kind ever promoted by any city of the United States. Every feature of western life will be re-enacted in a truly amazing manner by the most skillful and daring performers living.

Champion riders of world fame will, each day, compete with each other in wonderful and thrilling feats of horsemanship; racing wild horses by dare-devil riders will hold the crowds spell-bound; the "drunken-truly" is a top-notch feature; Indian races and feats will truly depict the character and cunning of the Red man; while the 150-mile pony express relay race will require a wonderful endurance test of man and beast. Champion lady riders will perform in a wondrous manner and remarkable is their skill as horsewomen. The square dances, Indian dances, and a REAL INDIAN WEDDING will portray in vivid manner Indian life. Bulldogging cattle, roping and branding, throwing by the horns and a general stampede are but a few of the features of life among the cattle. Not the least of the events planned is the monster street parade which will show every phase of early western life, cowboys, trappers, miners, express riders, stage coaches, pack trains and early settlers will participate. The world famous 72d Seaford Highland Band of 70 pieces will be one of the musical treats.

LONE STAR NEWS

FARMER LOSES VALUABLE COW
AND CALF.

News Mention of Comings and Goings of the District.

Lone Star, Ore., Sept. 19.—(Special)—Farmers are busy with their oat crops, which are pretty good although some were damaged by frost.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McClure and friends returned Sunday from the Round-Up and report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wade visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. McClure last Sunday.

D. Murchison, Claude Woodell and Herbert Conrad were busy this week looking after horses on the West mountain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Conrad and daughter, Nellie, visited with W. H. Conrad, their son and brother, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinzy were visitors in La Grande Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Veach were La Grande visitors Saturday.

Monday night W. E. McClure lost a cow and calf. The animals ate damp alfalfa. The loss was a heavy one to Mr. McClure.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children, and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to anyone in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

A Quaker Bargain.

Some young men from Boston applied to an old fisherman up in the country to see if he could get some bait. He thought he could and started off. Three hours afterward he appeared with a ten quart pail full of angle worms. "The boys were alarmed lest there should not be money enough in the party for such a wealth of bait, but they put on a bold front and some one asked, 'How much do we owe you?' 'Well, I don't rightly know,' answered the old man; 'the ground is under solid' and the worms is far down, and it's been hard on my back to dig 'em, but I've half a mind to go fishin' myself tomorrow, an' if you'll give me half the bait we'll call it square."

The Best Testimony.

I would rather hear the experience of a lifelong sufferer on the problem of pain or of a faithful lover on the mystery of love or of a poet on the influence of natural beauty or of an unselfish and humble soul on the question of faith in the unseen than the evidence of the most subtle theologian or metaphysician in the world.—Arthur C. Benson in "At Large."

Startling News.

New Yorker (at box office window)—Have you two orchestra seats in the fourth row, center, for tonight? Ticket Seller—Yes, sir. New Yorker (after recovering from the shock)—I guess I don't want them. The show can't be any good!—Lippincott's.

The Secret.

Mr. Gazip—That romantic Miss Paise says there is a secret connected with her birth. Miss Pickles—So I've heard. It's the date.—New York Globe.

Wonders of Victoria Falls.

Victoria falls is in shape like a huge capital T—the falls represented by the top of the letter and the outlet by the stem. The water pours into a great pool a mile long and escapes by a narrow outlet not more than 150 feet wide in places. The water pours into the pool with a roar that may be heard twenty-eight miles and stirs up a spray that causes constant rain to fall in its immediate territory. This spray is so great that it looks like a cloud against the sky and may be seen before you hear the roar of the falls. Yet the water from this great pool escapes almost as quietly as water from an undisturbed lake. After the water escapes from the great pool below the falls through the stem of the letter T it makes a turn at right angles and sweeps around like the capital letter U. Yet there is no great disturbance in any part of the outlet from the falls. At Niagara the whirlpool rapids is one of the world's wonders. Here the river a few hundred feet below the falls seems to be navigable.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Couldn't Be Much Lighter.

At a mock parliament held in Bristol the "honorable member for Stranraer" asked the "right honorable the president of the board of trade" (referring to the merchant shipping act, 1894, prevention of collisions) "whether a lighterman, having two light lighters in tow, would be required to light a lighter light on the lighter lighter, so that the lighter the lighter the lighter the lighter?" The president replied, "Obviously the answer is in the negative, since the lighter lighter being the lighter and the use of the comparative 'lighter' denoting that the lighter is already 'light' the lighter of the lights would not be required to light a lighter light on the lighter lighter, since the lighter lighter is lighter than the light lighter."—Strand Magazine.

Selenium in Time Recording.

An ingenious application of the peculiar property of selenium of varying its electric resistance with change of illumination has been made in Heidelberg in the electric transmission of pendulum beats to a distance for recording time and comparing clocks. For a long time the beats were electrically transmitted through contacts made by the pendulum itself. This method introduced irregularities of consequence, where hundreds of a second are taken into account, as in astronomical observations. The Heidelberg method causes the swinging pendulum, just as it touches its lowest point, to reflect a beam of light upon a selenium cell, which transmits the message without physical contact with the pendulum.—New York Tribune.

Bede House Feast.

At Fosdyke, a tiny village in England, there is held every year a most quaint dinner known as the Bede house feast. Some gentleman, many years back, left a sum of money with which half a dozen Bede houses were to be built, and once a year he directed that the occupants were to have a feast. Every year the six old ladies and the six old gentlemen meet the trustees and have dinner. Some of the trustees are county councillors and the like; but, according to the terms of the will, they have to serve the old people first and make them comfortable. The guests always sit in the same order as the number of their houses, and the menu must include a veal pie with plums in it.

A Fine Flow of Speech.

A native lawyer was defending a lady client in one of the Madras courts. The lady was accused of assault, but the man of law endeavored to show that she herself had been assaulted and had suffered damage on the most conspicuous feature of her countenance.

"My learned friend," he said, "with mere wind from a teapot thinks to browbeat me from my legs. He runs amuck upon the sheet anchors of my case. My poor client has been deprived of some of her valuable leather (skin), the leather of her nose. Until we are told what became of my client's leather nose the witness cannot be believed. He cannot be allowed to raise a castle in the air by beating upon a bush."—London Mail.

Highbrows.

Will Irwin, the magazine writer, is credited with the invention of the word "highbrow." It was coined to express a blend of "snob" and "academic." He first used it when, as a reporter, he had occasion to describe the proceedings of societies who talked about the betterment of the drama. He thinks that the word will be assimilated by the dictionaries.

Cheerful.

Professor of Chemistry—If anything should go wrong in this experiment, which is a particularly dangerous one, we and the laboratory with us might be blown sky high. Come closer, gentlemen, so that you may be better able to follow me without difficulty.—London Telegraph.

The Mothers

Bright Finish

THERE is always a charm and individuality about the old spoons which the early makers forged and wrought by hand. Absolutely plain, bright polished silverware is always rich and impressive and in our Mothers Pattern we have given this look of chasteness and dignity which the hand wrought spoon had. Designed from a very old pattern it is a perfect reproduction of the style our forefathers used and loved so well, and meets the demand in every way for a plain, bright finished Colonial pattern.
