Wm. Banton and Arthur Conaway, who own a threshing machine, have reached this neighborhood and have done considerable threshing since they started. They have found quite heavy yields in most places. There still remains quite a good many jobs for them but most of these are small jobs.

Helen Peebler has been at Pendleton for some time, taking treatment under Dr. Terpany. She thinks that she will continue his treatments for a while as they seem to be beneficial.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherwood, who reside on the foothill road, are home from Walla Walla, where they went by team to enjoy the big fair at that place.

Roy Peebler has returned to Toppenish, Wash. After a couple of weeks' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Peebler. He contemplates spending most of the winter at that place.

Mrs. W. B. Campbell, of La Grande, spent Wednesday with an old time friend, Mrs. John McCauley.

HUGE BEAR IS SKILLED WRESTLER

Big Bill, wrestling grizzly bear with the Barnes Circus, which exhibits here Saturday, Oct. 1.

"Sampson" the aviation lion, is one of the big, startling acts presented this season by the Al. G. Barnes Big three-ring wild animal circus. Sampson is a full grown, jungle-bred African lion. The act is very spectacular. Sampson and his trainer, Herr Roth, mount an aerial platform and are taken to the top of the big tent. Roman candles are placed all around the platform and the arena. They sputter and shoot right under the nose of the big lion but so perfectly has he been trained to do his act, he seems totally oblivious of their close proximity.

Another animal act involving plenty of action and excitement is the wrestling grizzly bear, "Big Bill" and his trainer, Geo. Strakosh. The trainer is a veritable giant in size, yet has never been able to get a fall from "Bill."

Over 350 animals appear on the program presented by the Barnes circus, a list embracing almost every known species. Both wild and domestic animals work in perfect unison in the rendition of a remarkably interesting and thrilling entertainment of over two hours' duration. The Barnes circus is distinctly "The show that's different," being the largest wild animal show in the world.

A glittering, mile-long street parade is presented to the public at 10:30. Two performances will be given here Saturday, October 11.
