SINNOTT ON BAG WARPATH

EASTERN OREGON FARMERS DE-FENDED BY SINNOTT.

Democratic Discrimination Eastern Oregon Resented.

Washington, Oct. 2.—(Special)—Congressman N. J. Sinnott of Oregon, made the democratic majority in the house of representatives sit up and take notice this week when he called attention to the discrimination against the farmers of eastern Oregon in the duty on grain bags in the Underwood bill.

In his brief speech made during the four hour debate on the conference report he brought out the fact that while most of the things the farmers produced had been put on the free list the jute grain bag a necessity in his district had been required to pay a duty. He said that the house and senate had turned a deaf ear to the protests of the farmers, and members of the grange of his district who had petitioned them for free grain bags and listened to the plea of a single grain bag manufacturer in the city of Portland, Oregon who wanted a duty on jute grain bags.

He said that although it was probably a forlorn hope he could not forbear stating that free sacks to the farmers of Oregon, who used between 18,000,000 and 25,000,000 yearly, might afford them some relief in these days of democracy which had taken from them nearly all the protection they had heretofore enjoyed on the things they raised to sell.

Developing further his ideas on the grain bag question Mr. Sinnott said today to a representative of the Observer:

"If the products of the farm are to be free, sacks and other articles needed by the farmer should be free. The present Underwood bill is more favorable to the manufacturer of grain sacks than the Payne-Aldrich bill, because under the new bill the manufacturer of grain sacks gets his burlap free. The differential under the Payne-Aldrich bill was only 5 per cent, in the Underwood bill it is 10 per cent.

"Another thing worth noticing is the discrimination in favor of the cotton farmer and against the grain farmer of the Pacific coast. By making the burlap free the farmer of the south gets the covering for his cotton without paying any duty, because the burlap is simply wrapped about the cotton. But by putting a duty on the burlap when it is made into a wheat sack the grain farmer of the west is forced to pay a duty on the covering for his produce, while the cotton raiser gets his free. This seems to me an added injustice to the farmers of Oregon."

BOOTH'S HYOMIE

Has Benefited Thousands of Catarrh Sufferers—Will Do the Same for You or Money Back.

The Hyomei treatment that has effectively benefited many thousands of sufferers from catarrh, bronchitis, husky voice and colds in the head, is easy and pleasant to use. Just pour a few drops in the inhaler and breathe it in—no stomach dosing. The healing, soothing and antiseptic air will reach every nook and crevice of the mucous membrane of the nose and throat; will surely stop crusts in the nose, raising of mucus, hawking and that choked up feeling. It will quickly allay the inflammation and banish the disease of money refunded by the Newlin Drug Co.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and bottle of liquid, costs only $1.00, and an extra bottle of liquid, if afterwards needed, is but 50 cents.

A. T. Hill and H. E. Coolidge have purchased 301 acres of the sugar company land on Gekeler Lane about four miles from La Grande and will plant the tract to alfalfa. Fred G. Taylor, former representative of the sugar company here, negotiated the sale.
