

AN EVIDENT SACRIFICE

One of the best built houses in the city, on Third street near the high school. Nine rooms, basement, furnace; two fire places, big lot, 120x120. Lawn and trees.

THE PRICE IS $2100.00

TERM

$600 cash required and $500 that must be taken care of in October, the balance can easily be handled, in fact the property will easily carry all indebtedness that is now against it but it would have to be re-financed.

Don overlook this opportunity for it certainly will not be on the market but a very few days. It is simply a question of having to sell. That tells the entire story. If you want a good home at a little money, investigate.

BOISE NOT IN TRI-STATE NOW

INCOME FOR SEASON IS COMPUTED AT $38,346.20.

Baker or Lewiston May Be Taken Into Fold In 1914.

Walla Walla, Wash., Oct. 9.—That Boise will accept the proffered berth in the Union association next year and that the Western Tri-State league will be recognized with another town in its place, was the opinion of the directors of the league after their star chamber session held yesterday afternoon in the Commercial club rooms. All the directors were present and no one else was admitted to the meeting.

Boise's action is not considered a flat withdrawal from the league, because of dissatisfaction, but resulted from a friendly and honest consultation of the directors in the interests of baseball, it being decided that it is probably better for the league to thus eliminate the long jump from the Idaho town to the others, since Boise was really in the Union association territory and equally as good a league could be organized of this end of the circuit. The matter will be decided definitely, however, later.

All of the other directors were of the opinion that their town wanted baseball again next year and that their fans would be ready to get behind another league organization next year and Secretary Brown stated that there would be no difficulty in getting another town to take over the Boise franchise.

The principal business of the directors consisted of equalizing the transportation and hotel expenses of the clubs interested and it was while juggling these figures that it was brought home to the directors the big expense of maintaining a club at Boise.

Yakima is anxious for more baseball in this class league and Pendleton fans can always be depended upon to back the game when spring opens up, while local fans have always been in favor of baseball. But one more town is needed then to maintain the league, or possibly three more towns could be admitted, making a six club league.

The final action on the matter being postponed until another meeting to be held on January 20, at which time Boise will take final and definite action and other steps will have been taken towards securing another town if necessary.

In going over the gate receipts of the league it was found that Boise had taken in $13,896.25 in 13 weeks of baseball; Walla Walla had taken in $8,761.45 in 10 weeks; Yakima, $7,576.95 with 11 weeks; Pendleton $3,869.45 in eight weeks; Baker, $3,159.75 in four weeks; and La Grande, $1,343.35 in three weeks. Total receipts, $38,346.20.

By this can be seen that Baker's receipts for four weeks were almost as much as Pendleton's for eight weeks. Hotel and transportation bills are pooled and each club pays the same amount, thus lightening the expense of the heaviest travelers.

At the meeting were: President W. N. Sweet of Boise, and Directors Eugene Henley of Boise, R. W. Ritner, of Pendleton, R. W. Rundstrum of Yakima and J. T. Crawford of Walla Walla.

Pendleton Club Gets Rebate. Pendleton, Oct. 9.—R. W. Ritner, Pendleton director of the Western Tri-State league, arrived home last evening from Walla Walla where he attended the meeting of the directorate of the league. He succeeded in carrying his point in the matter of pooling hotel and traveling expenses and the local club will thus secure a rebate of nearly $400. The league is in debt for salaries and each club will have to contribute about $100, he says. Mr. Ritner thinks that if the league is continued another year, Lewiston or Baker may take the place of Boise.
