STARKEY HAS FINE CROPS

THRESHING COMPLETE AND THE FARMERS ARE HAPPY.

Hunters Find Good Game In Starkey District.

Starkey, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special)—The threshing is completed with a good yield; much better than was expected, owing to the season.

Mrs. L. N. Able returned to her home at Echo.

Dick Smith and three other gentlemen of Island City, have gone up to Sheep Ranch on a shooting expedition. W. Averill, of La Grande, is in Starkey transacting business.

Fred Holtke purchased a span of horses from Oscar Coombs this week. The school is progressing in fine form. All are well pleased with the new teacher, Mr. Haines.

Oscar Coombs has gone to Quincy, Cal., to take charge of the logging for W. Y. Stoddard.

Ernest Shultz of Milwaukee, is visiting in Starkey.

Kenneth Smith is busy digging his potatoes. He has sixty sacks already contracted.

Preston Burnett made a trip to the city this week.

Dave Ward and two other gentlemen from La Grande, are hunting on Beaver creek with good success.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A Few Applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Bring Back Its Vigor.
Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready to use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening you hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. MRS. OLIVER M'COY.

The Neighborhood club will give its annual library benefit next Thursday evening, October 23, at the Presbyterian church at 8 p. m. At this time Mrs. Katherine Oliver M'CoY gives her new reading, entitled, "Tomorrow."

This play "Tomorrow", is based upon the timely and popular subject of Eugenics and is perhaps the most popular play with readers at the present time.

A professor of Chicago University says, "Mrs. McCoy in this wonderful play presents the subject of Eugenics in a most forceful way, yet in so delicate a manner as to leave no possible room for offense."

Mrs. McCoy is well remembered in La Grande as the Scotch impersonator. However, she does not appear in Scotch dialect in this reading as "Tomorrow" is an American play, written by an American author.

At the Presbyterian church Thursday evening; admission 50 cents, children, 25 cents. Tickets can be secured from any member of the Neighborhood club.
