

SHEEP HAULED FROM PASTURE

SNOW PENS IN BIG BAND OF ELGIN SHEEP.

Fall Harvest of Potatoes, Apples and Grain in Full Swing.

Elgin, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special)—The fall, with all its cold weather has come, and we think it is rather early for snow. Nevertheless, last Wednesday morning about an inch fell. The sheep are being hauled in from the mountains in wagons, and then shipped away. Harvesting is almost over, and the farmers are being well repaid for their hard year's work by the good crops.

All school children were permitted to see the Barnes circus in Elgin, through the kindness of Mr. Heuston. The Burns literary program was delayed Friday, due to so much illness among those who were to take an active part. The same program will be given next Friday afternoon in the assembly hall and everyone is invited to attend.
