FARMERS BUSY IN SUNSHINE

EXCELLENT WEATHER PREVAILS IN UNION.

Forsstrom May Buy North Powder Business Concern.

Union, Or., Oct. 23.—(Special)—Union is having very fine weather. Farmers are busy getting their grain and hay to the markets before the bad weather sets in. Everyone who has the time is getting in his winter supply of wood and that is keeping lots of teams busy. With the good crops and fine weather farmers and all are feeling fine. We feel better when we read of the great storms prevailing through the east and middle west.

Rumor has it that C. J. Forsstrom has bought the stock of merchandise from the Kelsey estate at North Powder and will resume the business there. This store has not been in active operation since the death of Mr. Kelsey, some months ago. Mr. Forsstrom was in business in North Powder some years ago when he first came to Oregon. North Powder is a live town and Mr. Forsstrom will do well at that place.

Born, on October 21, 1913, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Peters of North Powder. Mrs. Peters was Miss Rose Mulvehill before her marriage and was well known in this city. Grandpa Mulvehill is very proud over the arrival of his grandson and will soon be walking with a cane to support his dignity.

Born, on October 22, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Liedtekie, of Union, a son.

Grandma Bidler is on the sick list again but is some better at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bainbridge, of Lloyds Mill, are in town having their little girl attended to by a physician. The little one has been ailing for some time and was getting worse all the time.

Jane Addams says the fewer clothes women can wear with modesty the better. This may be all right in theory, but in practice modesty does not seem to enter into the matter.
