GLOOM HANGS OVER FOOTBALL

PROSPECTS FOR TODAY'S GAME
DISCOURAGING.Two Principal Linemen Retained by Faculty Bans—Couch Back.

With a team weakened seriously by faculty bans on tackle Winters and End Garrity, the local football squad went to Wallowa this morning and there play the stiff Wallowa eleven this afternoon. Gloom has been heavy over the local campus all week at prospects of the game, and yesterday this gloom was made all the heavier by a faculty ukase issued against Winters, the foremost lineman and Garrity, a regular end. With these two men out of the line-up the fans could see little chance to win at Wallowa this afternoon. The faculty and the athletic council is determined to make football team members keep up in studies and this severe punishment will probably not need repetition when the players discover the faculty means business. Couch, however, will be in the game, at least to begin with, as his injured ankle has largely healed. The captain's return to the game is the bright ray of hope that the fans pin faith to in today's game.

Wallowa will outweigh the locals 10 pounds to the man. Returns of the game will be telephoned to J. Van Buren's this evening.

The lineup necessitated by the changes at the eleventh hour, was given out by Coach Reynolds this morning as follows: Right end, Leftel; right tackle, Westering; right guard, Andrews; center, Kiddle; left guard Huff; left tackle, Couch; (captain); left end, Adams and Rosenbaum; right fullback, Proctor; left full, Oliver; right half, Conkey; left half, Hunter. Subs: Young Carpy and Williamson.

The names of the players for Wallowa follow: Atherton, C. Southwick, Brown, Murphy, F. Southwick, James, McClarin, Womack, McGinnis, Hayes, Goebel, Powers, L. Southwick, Johnson, L. Couch, Jr.; R. Couch.

Wallowa Team Strong.

Wallowa, Oct. 25.—(Special)—This afternoon saw the opening of the football season in Wallowa, when La Grande high school and Wallowa high school met on the base ball field. Wallowa's team is in first class condition and has been doing some hard work this week. The first game the Wallowa boys have had this season was in Enterprise last Saturday. That game, however, was more in the form of a practice game for the Wallowa team. The score was 20 to 7 in favor of the local team, Wallowa making three touchdowns and Enterprise making one.

Another comparison on Wallowa and Union county football strength is to be given today at Elgin when the Elgin high meets the Enterprise high this afternoon. Enterprise has already trimmed the Joseph team this year by a substantial figure.

Russell Ralston, a freshman at the University of Oregon, is captain of the freshman team this year. Ralston was a charger and punter on the back field of the local high school team for several years.
