

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

The women of the Neighborhood club are looking forward to an interesting and instructive afternoon next Tuesday at the regular session of the club, when the literary work of the year is to be begun and the first papers read.

The new year books are very attractive and the outline shows the year's study to be of our neighboring countries, beginning with Mexico, then Panama and ending with the republic of South America. These near-by countries which naturally should interest all are usually neglected for the study of the old world civilizations and students are inclined to think the former holds nothing of interest but a glance through the year book will be enough to convince anyone that this is a mistake as all the subjects presented are things about which everyone wishes to know.

The papers for next Tuesday are: "The Earliest History of Mexico," by Mrs. Bragg; "Cortez and the Conquered Race," Mrs. Laughlin, and "Aztec Art," by Mrs. Hill.

For the purpose of arranging dancing parties at Rex auditorium every two weeks for a considerable portion of the winter, the Jolly club has been formed by eight young ladies and gentlemen of the city. The first party is set for Thursday evening, October 30. The party will be held at the Rex auditorium and excellent music will be supplied. Invitations will be out in a day or two. Those who form the club membership are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Deslit, C. O. Ramsey, Charles Williamson and Walter Francis, Miss Irene Murphy, Miss Ethel Reith, and Miss Marjory McCall.

Clyde D. Allen, connected with the city livery, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Bonnie Smith, of Elgin. The wedding was very quiet, and after the ceremony which was performed at the Baptist parsonage with Rev. R. E. Close officiating, the bridal couple went east on a short wedding tour. Miss Smith was for some time connected with the Home Independent Telephone company here and both have a host of friends.

Mrs. Lulu M. Bay was hostess to the Billikin club on Thursday afternoon, serving delicious refreshments at the conclusion of the afternoon's swing, the chief vocation of the club when it meets. Mrs. Herman Siegrist a member of the club, was in attendance after a prolonged illness from which she has fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Meyers and Miss Margaret Newlin will entertain Friday night for members of the Kaffee Klatch. The club will meet at the Meyers home, corner Spring and First, and as that date is Halloween, it will be the important social night for many other clubs besides this one.

Cove, Oct. 25.—(Special)—On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve tea at the M. E. church. A special program has been arranged and everybody is invited. The hostesses for the occasion will be: Mrs. Eckersly, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Snediker and Mrs. Trueblood.

The Five Hundred club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. T. N. Murphy. Honors at cards went to Mrs. Jay Van Buren.

Hot Lake News Items.
Hot Lake Springs, Oct. 25.—(Special)—The hum of the hammer has ceased, but the smell of fresh paint lingers with us. Dr. G. W. Tape, manager, is vigorously prosecuting the work of improvement personally directing the expenditure of the $14,000 appropriated by the railroad company for improvements. The interior work has practically been finished and the outside is now well under way.

The "limerick maker" has broken loose here—here's his latest:
"Said Dr. Tape to prescribe is my profession. So to me you all must make honest confessions.

For aches and ills,
Drugs and pills,
You will always find in my possession."

Among the La Grande visitors during the week were:

Mrs. Andrew Buckley, Mrs. C. C. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. A. Newlin, E. L. Eckley, R. M. Oliver, and Mrs. Amy Robson.

Mrs. M. T. Foster has returned to La Grande cured of her rheumatism by the water of Hot Lake Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruckman, of Imbler, were over Sunday last to spend the day with Mrs. William Ruckman, wife of the well known Walla Walla dentist.

For many years a co-star with Miss Russell, Ray F. Brandon is, without doubt, one of the most popular and best known leading men on the western stage, he is also recognized as one of the foremost producers of popular theatrical exposition. Much of the artistic finish attributed to the Russell performances are due to Mr. Brandon's critical eye and extraordinary judgment in selecting theatrical material.

Next Monday evening the Jeannie

Russell Company will open a four nights' engagement at Sherry's first presenting the hilarious comedy, "A Star by Mistake" written and acted in one act. It discloses many phases of a theatrical manager's office activities and the ever recurring humorous instances in searching for desirable talent. Supplementing the performance of the play will be several high class vaudeville numbers.

Wallowa Stars Entertain.

Wallowa, Or., Oct. 25.—(Special)—The Eastern Star lodge had as its guest Thursday evening, Worthy Matron Mary M. Reisacher, of Condon, Oregon. A banquet was given in her honor after the regular lodge work. This is a regular visit of the worthy grand matron, and she will visit all the chapters in the county on this trip.
