MOTHERS.

How one mother got 8 children in the picture show free and without cost. Last week she put $2.00 in a sack of flour. No show for the kids that week. This time she only put $1.20 in a sack; the 8 children took the 40c, went to the show and these same dear children have 40c left for more shows. Total of everything, $2.00. My dear parents this is no small item. We are always looking out for the kids and if you insist on still paying $2.00 for a sack of flour, and get La Grande Milling Co.'s $1.20 kind, you never will give you back 16 free passes 16 times. La Grande Milling Co., is printed on each sack. Please make us prove it—each grocer guarantees this plan. It's Sea Foam, cash special, our seal $1.20.

PERSONALS.

H. J. Hughes was a passenger to Imnaha this morning where he is engaged in the saw mill business.

B. Rafter of La Grande, was a passenger to Howard creek this morning.

P. K. Emmons, of Elgin, was a Sunday visitor in La Grande. He departed this morning for his home.

J. M. Richey, local piano dealer, went to Portland this morning on business. He will be absent from the city for a number of days.

Mrs. Jno Pace just returning from a visit to Baker, was a passenger on the branch this morning. She is returning to her home in Wallowa.

W. J. Allen and wife, of Boise, who were guests at the J. K. Wright home over Sunday, returned to Boise yesterday evening.

Mrs. Fred Maxley and little daughter, Susie, went to Enterprise to visit relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

E. Stanley, who for many years conducted a paper in Missouri, but now a respected and venerable citizen of Wallowa, was in the city over Sunday, returning this morning.

L. G. Seaton of the North Pacific Fruit distributors, arrived in La Grande en route to Imbler, where he is sent as district inspector for the company to look over the fruit supply of that section.

Mrs. E. W. Brooker and daughter, Letha, departed for Pendleton today to be the guests of Mrs. Floyd Hartman for a few days. Mrs. Brooker is Mrs. Hartman's mother.

Attorney A. A. Smith, of Baker, one of the promising young men of that city in the legal profession, was a passenger to Pendleton this morning to attend sessions of the supreme court.

Mrs. Whittle, of Imbler, accompanied by Mrs. Richardson, went to Portland this morning, where she will have an operation performed on one of her ears. Mrs. Richardson will return in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Webster of Boise, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Long of La Grande, left today for points in Washington, where they will visit before returning to Boise.

R. J. Greene, who was reported as leaving yesterday for Pendleton did not leave until this morning. He was not the vanguard of the local attorneys who will go there to attend sessions of the supreme court, because

C. H. Finn departed at the same time. H. McKinnis, one of the prominent merchants of Alicel, was a business visitor to the county seat over Sunday. He returned this morning.

Mrs. Zella Harvey, who has been the guest of La Grande friends for a week, departed for her home in Boise this morning.

Mrs. A. C. Duncan of Weiser, was in the city a number of days visiting with her husband who is employed in the local railroad shops.

Mrs. Jno. Anthony and little daughter, Margaret, of Randow, were passengers to Baker this morning, where they will visit for a couple of days.

Deputy Sheriff T. Williamson went to Baker this noon to apprehend two men who are wanted in La Grande for jumping a board bill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hollenbeck, of La Grande started on their journey to Phoenix, Arizona, this morning, where they will spend the winter and perhaps make their future home.

Mrs. H. P. Stewart of Union, was a passenger to Wallowa this morning where she will visit at the home of her Brother, Mr. Chas. T. McDaniel, for a week or ten days.

Giles Van Housen of Alicel, J. W. Underwood of Baker, J. A. Burleigh of Enterprise, Pierre De Bonnot of Joseph, are among those registered at the Foley.

Mrs. G. W. Cameron of Wallowa, returned today from a visiting trip to Walla Walla. Mrs. W. W. Smart, her sister, of the latter city, returned with her to be her guest in Wallowa for a number of weeks. They left for that place this morning.

Mrs. Thos. Lillard and infant daughter, Louise, of Nampa, were in La Grande visiting Mrs. Cora Scott and the Harding family. She left this morning for Bandon, Oregon, where she will visit with relatives and friends before returning to her home in Nampa.

Baker Bros., of La Grande, who have been engaged in the digging of a well for the Alicel school board, went to that place this morning to move their machinery into the dry for the winter. They report striking water in that section from 65 to 150 feet. Both are expert at the business and have been successful this season.

E. L. Smith, of the Holt Manufacturing company, was in the city the guest of Dr. Conner for a number of days. While here he superintended the unloading of the caterpillar engine purchased by Mr. Holmes for his farm. He also became a subscriber to the Observer in order to remain in touch with business in this city and community.

Mrs. Beudette and children departed for Portland this morning, where they will make their future home. Mr. Beudette has been in Portland for some time and has paved the way for the coming of his family. They have been residents of La Grande for a number of years, but owing to the altitude Mrs. Beudette's health has not been the best. La Grande is losing an excellent family.

Mrs. C. J. Gannet has just returned from an extended trip to the east, where she visited relatives and friends in New York, Syracuse, Buffalo, Michigan and the Dakotas. In speaking in a comparative way of the different states and cities she had visited. Mrs. Gannet had this to say: "I used to wonder why people come back to Oregon, but I don't now. When you travel, you really begin to appreciate the good climate and a valley where we never have a complete failure of crops. The east and the middle west suffered very much this summer for the want of rain."
