YOUNGSTER ON BICYCLE HURT

UNION BOY BREAKS LEG IN SUD-
DEN FALL.Cozy Theatre Management at Union
Changes Hands This Week.

Union, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special)—A distressing accident occurred on Friday morning when the little son of J. P. Thomas fell off the bicycle and broke his leg. He was riding on the handle bars of the machine and Glen Miller was in the saddle when the machine struck some obstacle and threw the boys off and in so doing broke the leg of Rees Thomas between the hip and knee. A physician was called and set the limb. The boy will be laid up for some weeks as it was a bad break and will take a long time to heal.

Mr. Chapman bought out his partner, Mr. Williams, and will now run the Cozy theatre by himself. Mr. Williams and family have not decided yet as to where they will locate. Mr. Chapman will keep up the high standard set and will have as good if not better amusements than in the past.

Mr. Ford and family left Saturday for Colorado Springs, where they will make their future home. Colorado Springs was their old home and they have gone back there. However we look for them to come back as that is the way most people do that leave Oregon.

Mr. Bingham was brought down from Telocast the other night on the train. He had an attack of acute stomach trouble and had to be brought down on a stretcher. He is much better at present and will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Martin of North Union are enjoying a visit with Mrs. Oliver Martin and daughter in law of Mr. Martin's who lives at Rupert, Idaho, and Mrs. Cox who lives at Ontario. They expect to remain for some days.

We are having more rain than is necessary for the time of year but probably the weather clerk knows more about the weather than we do. We have rain every night and sunshine during the day.
