MRS. HART PASSES AWAY: Well Known Hillgard Woman Succumbs to Paralysis Last Night.

Mrs. J. C. Hart, wife of the O. W. agent at Hillgard, died last night of paralysis. She had an attack of the same malady some time previous to this last one which proved fatal. She has been in eastern Oregon for the last 14 years, coming to Hillgard from Heppner. On the 19th of October, she was taken ill and owing to her advanced age was unable to rally. All of the six children living were present when the end came. She was a life-long member of the Episcopal church and was revered and respected by everyone in the community for her fine character and spirit of helpfulness. She was born in Lexington, Ohio, coming west in the prime of life. She is the mother of six living children, who, to gether with her husband, mourn her loss. The funeral will take place in Pendleton next Sunday, at which place a number of the children reside. The following children will attend the funeral: Mrs. M. B. Metzler, of La Grande; Fred G. Hart, railroad agent at Rathdrum, Idaho; Mrs. G. W. Phelps, of Pendleton; Mrs. Frank Reiklin, of La Grande; Mrs. Frank Reiklin, of Pendleton; and Miss Ruth Hart, of Hillgard. Besides these, husbands of the married daughters and friends from La Grande and Hillgard will attend the last sad rites.
