

"THE WOLF" THRILLING DRAMA

The sale of seats for "The Wolf" will open Monday morning. This being one of the big theatrical events of the season, a large demand is more than probable, and for choice locations an early application would be advisable. Don't buy of speculators. The demand everywhere has been so great that it has been an inducement for unscrupulous parties to follow this attraction from town to town, buying seats for the purpose of speculation. That immense scene in "The Wolf" which comes to the Arcade Theatre on Friday night, November 14th, in which a duel takes place before the audience; but on a stage so dark that you can't tell which one is getting the worst of it. There comes a fall, deadly silence, one is killed—but which one, the hero or the villain? and then a lighted match flashes and you see—what you see! It's not only the big scene of the play, but the biggest, strongest and greatest scene ever played on any stage.

THE THIEF POPULAR.

Miss Russell and Ray Brandon Carry Difficult Roles Well.

In "The Thief", presented last night at Sherry's theatre, Miss Jeannie Russell and Ray Brandon were the whole show, and they were eminently enough for on no previous occasion did they show their real worth as they did last night in the presentation of two difficult roles. While Miss Russell and Mr. Brandon proved themselves most capable histrionic stars in "Cousin Kate", their efforts of last night demonstrated that they still had some thing of real merit in store for an appreciative audience. It was perhaps the best work seen here in many a day and the audience was breathless during the entire performance of a gripping theme. The versatility of feeling on the part of Miss Russell is marvelous, but it could hardly be said that the piece would or could have the merit if the leading man did not support his co-star in an equally perfect manner.

Miss Steadman was in perfect voice last night in her first number and seems most able in singing difficult and classical music.

It was the first time during the entire week that this gifted singer obtained a real hearty encore. La Grande audiences are not the most appreciative, but on this occasion showed that they appreciated good music when well rendered.

From an artistic standpoint Miss Steadman's rendition of classic numbers leaves little to be desired and it may be safely predicted that she will be heard of in future with big companies.

Chas. Martinez, who has enjoyed fine vocal training at one of the best schools of Europe, will assist the company this evening by singing a number of Spanish songs.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and no cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
