THE Gossard CORSETS

They Lie in Front.

They lie in front—as a result the abdomen is relieved of all pressure. Support is given to the organs and deep breathing is encouraged. They emphasize the long graceful line of the back, which artists agree is the most beautiful line in art.

They gently but surely compel a correct standing position and a graceful carriage. I invite you to investigate these wonderful corsets.

A trial fitting will please you. Prices $3.50 to $8.50.

A complete line always on hand of the different models and styles.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa.: "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlains Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

RALLY SHOWS SCHOOL LOYALTY

By RALPH WINTERS.

Last night's rally goes to show that the high school has not lost faith in its football boys, even if other people have, and the team goes out this afternoon knowing that the whole school is back of them and to prove that their faith is not misplaced. About 200 students armed with all the available noise makers that could be found within and without the city limits. These were gathered by boys and girls after school last evening. The freshmen were set to work assembling a bunch of wood for a fire, at four in the afternoon, and had great success. The students assembled at the high school grounds at seven o'clock and headed by the yell leader, Lester Stoddard, they "single filed it" down the main streets, down Fourth on to Depot, thence up and down Adams, giving yells, ringing bells, blowing horns, pounding on tin pans, beating cans, dragging cowbells, and making all the noise possible. Wherever a crowd was assembled the bunch of students broke into the center and gave a rousing yell and told of the game today. The long line filed through Sherry's and were given a hearty hand. After disturbing the peace of the quiet streets for about an hour the procession wended its way up the hill to a vacant lot near the school house, and set fire to the huge pile of wood assembled by the industrious freshmen. By the light of this fire more yells were given and speeches were indulged in, Professor Olsan gave an interesting talk on the loyalty of students to the team and the keeping up of a good school spirit. His talk was followed by another given by Mr. Maris, who told of the help a team felt when backed by a "live bunch" of rooters. Following these talks a few of the freshmen made attempts at songs, speeches and dances. Then the whole crowd gave a correct imitation of an Indian war dance. A few attempts were made at hazing but all was carried on in an orderly manner and in the best of spirit. Some of the students represented the Baker players and carries off their honors very successfully, according to those who witnessed the performance.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.
