THE GOLDEN RULE CO.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Frank Rechlin is here visiting relatives from Pleasant Valley.

Engineer Martin has been transferred to Pleasant Valley, where he will run a helper.

C. A. Ray of Elgin was in the city over night shopping. He returned today.

Sherwood Williams was among the Imbler passengers on the Joseph branch.

Mrs. Emily Nelson of La Grande went to Alice to spend the day with friends.

Mrs. George Cleaver of Imbler was among the passengers to that place this morning.

Miss H. E. Roskamp and mother left this morning for Portland, where they will visit for a number of weeks.

Mrs. Edward Burlin and child returned from Portland last night and left this morning for Joseph, where they reside.

Charles Burton, an employee of the Palmer Lumber company, left for that place this morning after an absence of several days.

Miss D. Gregory, who has been employed at Hot Lake for some time, left this morning for Portland, where she will reside in the future.

Mrs. John Schilling and daughter of La Grande were guests of the St. George last evening—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mrs. G. R. Wilson of Herrington, Wash., was in La Grande the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howland for a number of days. She left for home this morning.

Mrs. Jack Spencer and son Lewis returned to Elgin this morning after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plass, during the last week.

Y. Hashimut, who has been in La Grande for a number of years, has been in the employ of the O.W., left today on a long journey to Japan.

where he will spend the remainder of his life.

Mr. and Mrs. Painter of Halfway, Oregon, passed through La Grande this morning on their way to Joseph, where they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Faught, for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tulley of Puyallup, Wash., were passengers to Wallawa this morning. Mr. Tulley is one of the oldest settlers of the valley and came here in 1865. For a number of years he lived in Cove and in 1872 moved to Wallawa. When he went up to that county he could find but one cabin, and that belonged to a trapper. For many years wild game, which was plentiful, filled his larder. Mr. Tulley is well known here and is going to Wallawa to visit the old home and some of his old friends.

A. G. Wigglesworth of Wallawa arrived in La Grande last night and departed for home this morning after spending a number of weeks in Warrenton and other coast cities. Mr. Wigglesworth is of the opinion that Warrenton is going to be the gateway of Oregon and of the northwest and that in time it will rank among the leading cities of the coast. He is elated over the announcement that the Hill lines will operate steamers between San Francisco and Astoria. He also announces that his son and family will arrive in La Grande tomorrow to visit with him in Wallawa for a week or ten days.
