GAME TO BE PLAYED TOMORROW MORNING

Wallowa News Items and Personal Mention of Interest

Wallowa, Nov. 14—A football game between the first teams of the Union and Wallowa high schools will take place on the Wallowa field Saturday morning.

Prof. J. J. Beatty went to La Grande last Thursday to "size up" the Baker football team. The reason for Prof. Beatty's visit was in anticipation of a game either between Baker or Pendleton on Thanksgiving day at Wallowa.

Mrs. W. G. Trill will leave tomorrow to spend Thanksgiving with her relatives at Colfax, Wash.

Dr. V. Gesner, formerly of Lostine, has located in Wallowa.

Workmen are engaged in tearing down the remaining portion of the Diamond Prairie bridge, which was practically destroyed during the high water of last spring. A new steel bridge will be built in the near future.

George N. Taylor of Portland, one of the field secretaries of the Anti-Saloon league, was in Wallowa Tuesday, soliciting subscriptions. He went from here to Lostine.

A. Younker, contractor and builder, arrived Friday from a several months' stay in Elgin, and visited a few days here. He left Sunday for Cove.

H. B. Haisten, the local undertaker, was summoned to Joseph Saturday morning on professional business, returning Sunday afternoon.

Misses Nell Grimmett and Ruth Russell, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Holmes for several days, returned to their home in La Grande today.

E. S. Wolfe, who was taken to the Wallowa hospital Sunday evening in a serious condition, is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tully of Puyallup, arrived today and are visiting friends and relatives.

George Woods, who has been a patient at the Wallowa hospital for several days, returned to his home in Evans Tuesday.

Edwin Marvin, made a business trip to Enterprise Tuesday.

The modern new home of Winn Dougherty in Lower Valley, two miles north of Wallowa, is rapidly nearing completion. Contractor John Langmo is doing the work.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.
"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Saved His Foot.
H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklin's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your

THE Gossard CORSETS

They lace in front—as a result the abdomen is relieved of all pressure. Support is given to the organs and deep breathing is encouraged. They emphasize the long graceful line of the back, which artists agree is the most beautiful line in art.

They gently but surely compel a correct standing position and a graceful carriage. I invite you to investigate these wonderful corsets.

A trial fitting will please you. Prices $3.50 to $8.50.

A complete line always on hand of the different models and styles.
