AN HONORABLE TRADE

There are certain occupations that to the cruel mind give to the employee a name for anything but virtue. Just why that is the case we need not stop to argue. There is one occupation, usually embracing women, which has come to be looked upon by some as about the last thing a woman should put her hand to. It is almost needless to make mention of that particular occupation for people who are right at heart know that the work and position of the average girl working in a restaurant or grill, the country over are honorable. To assume that every girl or the majority of girls whom necessity forces to work at something which they can do are either morally wrong or of easy virtue is a violent assumption, not to say mental slander. It is most emphatically not the case as some men find out when they make suggestive allusions during the serving of meals, especially in the large cities. The matter has become so ingrained that every girl who is pleasant is supposed to be an easy victim of some perverted mind. It would no doubt be one of the most effective lessons such a hoodlum ever got if a waitress poured over his immoral brains a bowl of steaming hot soup.

No one would censure her for the act and that particular restaurant or grill would in a short time acquire a reputation that quickly would attract the brat trade in any city. A little aggressive self-help on the part of the girls properly backed up by the public would do more in quick order than a lexicon of dry laws and slow legal machinery.

YOUR HAIR MAY BE YOUR FORTUNE

Beautiful hair has made the fortune of many a woman, by adding charm and loveliness to an otherwise plain face. Nothing means more to good looks than beautiful hair. It adds to the attractiveness of every feature. Without it you can't be beautiful with it you will be at less pretty.

To have beautiful hair, use Harmony Hair eBautifier. It will improve the beauty of your hair, taking away the dull harshness and stringiness, softening and polishing every hair in your head and making it soft, silky, glossy, easier to put up and keep in place, and at the same time giving it a rich and last rose fragrance that will delight both you and those around you.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair eBautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—Hill Drug Store.

"THE WOLF" IS ATTRACTION TONIGHT AT ARCADE

This evening at the Arcade, the splendid drama, "The Wolf," will be put on with the attention to details that is given anywhere.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS

Mrs. John Frawley is suffering with a severe attack of lagrippe.

E. C. Quirk is here today on one of his regular calls for a wholesale wire rope house.

W. E. Wade of Imbler was among those registered at the Savoy last night.

Rev. E. W. Achilles of Spokane passed through La Grande this morning on his way to Enterprise, where he will visit relatives for some time before returning to his pastorate.

A. A. Crissel of the firm of Monroe & Crissel was in the city in the interest of the dairy supply business. He reports good sales in this city and in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McQueen departed this morning after a pleasant visit at the home of C. D. Putnam of this city. They came here from Halfway, but are returning to Milton where they live.

Father Luke Sheehan of the diocese of Baker was in the city last night, the guest of Father Driscoll. Late in the evening Father Sheehan related his experiences gleaned on a trip through Ireland, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearce. It was a narration of one familiar with the country, and its quaint customs.

Mrs. C. E. Long of Portland left this morning after a few weeks' stay at the home of her grandmother, who has been very ill for the last two weeks. Mr. Kessler of Portland, father of Mrs. Long, has been in the city some time and returned this morning. The sick relative is improving rapidly.
