

Society

Just a touch of easiness prevailed in society circles during the week when the past two weeks are used on a basis of comparison. Even at that many very pleasant affairs were held. But the future looks even more filled with big attractions. The coming of the teachers Thanksgiving week means at least one big social function, and then the Thanksgiving home-comings promise great things always on the holiday week. Many parties are promised for that week, and not the least of them will be the annual dancing party by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. These annual affairs are always looked forward to and the trainmen's committee this year hopes to outdo former efforts. Other social functions of prominence loom up for Thanksgiving week.

Bazaars are to be the chief attractions in church social activities and three are being shaped out for the next fortnight.

One of the big events for the coming week is the part which Mrs. Julius Roesch will give to her lady friends next Thursday at K. P. Hall. More than 150 invitations have been sent out to ladies of the city and to some out of town people and it is thought this affair will be among the foremost of the year. Elaborate decorations will be made for the affair.

A number of parties staged for the week are those by the Ladies of the Macabees. A contest is on among the members of the lodge. Two teams have been formed, composed of the members and it is the object of these teams to determine which of them will banquet the other. Points are given for stunts at each entertainment and the losers will entertain the winners. The Diamonds have the lead in points and their sister competitors the Stars are not far behind in the race. It is an interesting contest.

One of the most delightful of a string of pleasant dancing parties

this year took place Thursday night when the ladies of the Sodality of the Catholic church gave their first dancing event of the season. Fully 125 couples were present and indulged in dancing until midnight. The music left little to be desired and the floor was in first class condition. The committee made a successful effort to have everybody busy at each number and much satisfaction reigned as a result of the effort. Proceeds of the affair will go to the church building fund. The following committee had charge of the arrangements: Ethel Reith, Helen McHugh, Elizabeth Donnelly, Leona Newlin, and Eileen Pearce. The patronesses were Mrs. F. E. Wilhelm, Mrs. Chester Newlin and Mrs. J. F. O'Connell. This popular and enterprising club promises other functions of this sort during the winter months.

To fittingly observe the visit of a prominent official of the order the G. I. A. to the B. of L. E., O. W. Moon division No 43, Thursday evening tendered a delightful banquet at the Model the membership of the order here. The guest of honor was Mrs. J. T. Campbell of Spokane, who came to pay her official visit as grand vice-president of the order to the local division. The official visit over, the guest of honor was feted at the Model restaurant with Mrs. J. C. Shea, Mrs. Lou Given, Mrs. Geo. Parker, Mrs. C. O. Schubert, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. G. Simmons, Mrs. Luke Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Pike, Mrs. Ed. Jacobson, Mrs. Pete Beiver, Mrs. G. M. Curtiss and Mrs. C. C. Bull as guests for the evening. The affair was greatly enjoyed both by visitor and home folks.

On Tuesday evening the parlors of the Methodist church were crowded with a host of young and old people who came to bid welcome to a large number of new members who have recently joined the church. The church was very prettily decorated for the reception with leaves and flowers cozy corners were formed with navajo rugs and long seats crowded with sofa pillows. A short program was rendered after which Dr. Fyke gave an address of welcome to the new members which was followed by a response from Mr. Freeman. After this a social hour was spent during which time lunch was served from a table presided over by Inez Knowles and Olive Massee. Sherbet, wafers and mints were served from another table by Thelma Leffel and Marie Bolton. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the new members were made to feel at home in the La Grande church. The Newlin book and stationery store loaned a beautiful graphanola which was operated by Mr. Stewart and furnished delightful selections all evening.

Mexico is proving an interesting study to the members of the Neighborhood club and the papers last Tuesday were exceptionally good. Mrs. Love's subject was "Mexico at the Height of Her Power," and Mrs. J. D. Smith told about the life of Mexican women and girls. Mrs. George Bernie gave a review of Rider Haggard's book "Montezuma's Daughter" that was greatly enjoyed.

The all-absorbing topic of interest before the club at present is their coming entertainment, "The County Fair," which will be given the first week in December. This has been a great success wherever it has been given and the ladies hope to realize enough funds to furnish their club room in the new public library, which is nearing completion. All the members are full of enthusiasm and willing to do their share toward making the undertaking a success. Mrs. Vincent Palmer has appointed the following committees:

Executive Committee—Mesdames V. Palmer, Geo. T. Cochran, J. T. Richardson, E. Pollack, O. E. Silverthorn. Chaperones—Mesdames E. Pollack, E. E. Bragg, A. L. Richardson, A. Hunter, Dr. Lile Green, L. B. Moe. Chaperones for Chorus—Mesdames J. T. Richardson, G. Armstrong, C. M. Lockwood, H. T. Love, Frank Jackson, Miss Netta Kiddle. Chaperones for Dialogue—Mesdames T. J. Scroggins, M. H. Hall, F. G. Schilke. Patronesses—Mesdames Silverthorn, George Palmer, W. Turner Oliver, E. E. Kiddle, A. G. Lane, F. L. Lilly, N. Molitor, F. L. Holmes, W. H. Bohnenkamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Dunn were host and hostess to the Sans Souci club on Wednesday evening. The club's honors at cards on that evening went to Mrs. DeLyle Green and Fred L. Holmes. The next meeting place of this social organization will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattison.

An organization formed for social enjoyment with sewing as the immediate motive, has been formed between several well known young ladies recently and held one of its delightful sessions last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Frankie Crawford, 1334 Adams avenue. A two course luncheon was served the guests during the evening. Those now belonging to the club—known as the Flour Deleuse, and who were in attendance at Miss Crawford's party were Miss Nora Arbuckle, Miss Ruth Hart, Miss Nellie Hills, Miss Eunice Kennedy, Miss Zepha Kennedy, Mrs. Josephine Atkins and Miss Burke.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Frank Bay was hostess to a group of her husband's friends complimenting his birthday anniversary. The hostess entertained at dinner and the affair was entirely a surprise. An elaborate dinner was handsomely served at 6:30 and the guests called in for the function were: H. M. Bay, Lloyd Scriber, Claude Mackey, Charles Murchison, L. M. Hoyt, J. G. Snodgrass, Herman Seigrist, L. L. Snodgrass, Ben Noyes, Rube Zweifel, Nate Zweifel, Prof. Haines, C. O. Ramsey, Dr. J. W. Riley, K. Ford and A. W. Nelson.

Organization of a large club that embraces the lady membership of the Baptist church has been finally enacted this week. For some little time, social affairs of the thriving church body has been wrapped up in a monthly meeting of the congregation at which programs are carried out and supper served. The sponsors of the organization are women who are now known as the Baptist Woman's Outlook circle, and this portion of the organization meets once monthly in the afternoon, and at the dinner hour entertain the men of the congregation. Games and a program follow. Such an affair was held last Tuesday evening with fully 100 present to enjoy it.

Mrs. J. Dordan and Mrs. B. Hughes and Mrs. Lee Bellinger entertained the Busy Bees very prettily Thursday afternoon. Nearly 30 ladies who belong to this organization were guests for the afternoon, and in addition to the games and music given to the edification of the guests, the hostesses served a two-course luncheon.

Mrs. Boyles won first prize in the peanut contest and Mrs. Masterson captured the booby prize. This contest consisted in carrying as many peanuts as possible on a knife a given distance. Mrs. Boyles carried even ten and Mrs. Masterson a single nut. In the musical contest Mrs. Tom Williamson carried off the honors of the day with Mrs. Stilwell coming in for the consolation. After the games refreshments were served.

Friends in this city have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Mayme Pearl Howard to Herman E. Witham of Portland. Miss Howard formerly made her home in this city and was a popular member of the younger set.

Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Scriber very pleasantly entertained the members
