and a few others of their friends of the Pinochle club Tuesday evening at pinochle. L. L. Snodgrass took home the favors.

Mrs. C. C. Duffy, a member of the team of the Diamond club entertained other members of the same club at her hospitable home on Fir street Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. T. W. King won the big prize and Mrs. Tim O'Leary took the minor honors. About ten members of the team were present and gained points on their sisters, the Sara, of the Ladies of the Macca-bees. After the musical program and games dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Bert Hughes entertained members of the Diamond club, a subdivision of the Ladies of the Macca-bees, at her home last Monday evening. Games were played and refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. T. C. O'Leary and daughter, Mrs. T. W. King, Mrs. John Dordon and daughter, Mrs. C. H. Boyles, Mrs. Lee Bellinger, Miss Lela Hough.

The Women of Woodcraft tendered a farewell party to Mrs. Georgia Heisner last Tuesday evening at the K. of P. hall. The ladies presented Mrs. Heisner with a beautiful gift as a token of esteem. She has been a faithful member of the La Grande lodge and a large circle of friends in this city regret her leaving. Mrs. Heisner leaves soon for her new home at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr entertained at the Van Buren home for members of the Kaffee Klatch last evening. Honors at cards for the evening went to Mrs. P. S. Robinson for ladies, and W. W. Berry for gentlemen. The next meeting of this organization will be next Friday when the ladies of it will be guests of Mrs. George T. Cochran, corner First and Washington.

Mrs. Anson and Mrs. Owsley, at the home of the former, banqueted the Parkdale club Wednesday. It was a royal dinner and greatly enjoyed. Business and the regular program were laid aside until the next meeting with Mrs. Chandler, when the subject will be "How can the government best benefit the farmer's wife?"

Lee Humphrey of Island City got the surprise of his life last night when neighbors and friends from all directions piled into the Humphrey home with loaded baskets. Mr. Humphrey laments the fact that birthday anniversaries don't come oftener.

Mrs. G. A. Lincoln and Mrs. D. J. Jesse entertained a number of young lady friends Friday, from 4 to 6, complimenting Miss Virginia Lincoln's birthday anniversary. Miss Winnie Kenned and Miss Mary Fitzgerald won prizes at parlor games that, with delicious refreshments, entertained the guests.

Mrs. J. T. Richardson gave an at home Monday evening in honor of her son Harley's birthday anniversary. The hostess served a six-course dinner to a dozen of her son's friends after which an informal but very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. A. B. Blood entertained Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. E. D. Selder at her country home in Maypark a few days ago. The ladies came early and were royally entertained all day.

Mrs. Henry Hill entertained a few ladies at her home last week with an informal social afternoon. The ladies present were: Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Tatman, Mrs. Heacock and Mrs. Hibbard.

The Happy Hour club will meet with Mrs. Fred Williams Friday afternoon.

Mrs. William Allison was hostess to the Bridge club on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp won the score favors for the day.

On account of the Presbyterian bazaar on Tuesday the Eastern Star Social club will not meet next week.

The Perry Social club, sponsors for a series of dancing parties at Perry, will entertain this evening at dancing.
