With a close margin of ten pins, and keen excitement between the many fans in attendance, a group of tailors last night burst the perfection bubble entertained by the Midgets and nosed out a victory in a rattling exhibition. True, no very high averages were made, but the rolling was even and so close that the match took on baseball excitement at various stages. Another organization is being formed to take on the Toggery team in the near future. The scores were:

Long Shot Aids Dark Cupid

Some of the pranks of cupid have an element of adventure in them not to say elements of improbability. And to say that all of the long-distance and apparently aimless shots go wrong is not telling the truth. In this case it was firing off a mortar and depending on luck to make a hit. It was a shot across the mountains and the results at hand show that the little God of love laughs to shame the theories of eugenists and heretarians, who teach almost everything pertaining to the sweet dream of life must be put under the microscope of heartless inspection before the heart is allowed to run riot in surge of delightful feeling.

A young colored man employed by a wealthy lady of this town some time ago approached her and requested the loan of $75. He informed her that he was tired of single blessedness and wanted the money to enable his prospective wife to come to La Grande.

"Do you know the girl?" he was asked and had to reply that he did not.

"But whom are you going to marry?"

Here he explained that he was going to have the sister of his best friend come out and that all things would explain themselves later. The wealthy lady gave him the money and in due time the dainty young colored miss came out from Kansas City. She arrived on Saturday and was married on the following Sunday. They immediately went to housekeeping, later moved to Pasco, bought a hotel and are living happily ever since. The wedding banquet was furnished by the lady who took the long shot with $75, and the money which he had borrowed was promptly returned. Latest reports have it that they are prospering and have agreed from the first meeting.

The incident happened some time ago and created considerable commotion among several families, by reason of the unusual circumstances and this bit of news will add the proper ending to the story, namely that they are living happily ever after.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription can be relied upon. We should not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.
